FOREWORD

The transitional epoch in history, in which we are now living, is incalculably influenced by the wide extent of the artful, sometimes insidious, deception of pernicious propaganda, comprising a body of distortions and half-truths which bias the judgment of the individual in every area of daily life. At a time when truth is so needed, error was never more prevalent. In fact, truth is often maligned as actually subversive and this is nowhere more evident than in the religious sphere where, beyond a degree of unanimity, more or less, in regard to the necessity to accept our Lord Jesus Christ as personal Saviour, theological chaos abounds.

We are today in the midst of a period of great apostasy under church leaders who, according to Paul, have "a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof" (II Timothy 3: 5). They were anciently designated as false prophets or false teachers, but they had--and they now have--the ear of the people. In their studies, they only embrace a superficial theology and this is especially apparent in the failure to comprehend the scope of the story the Bible tells or identify the people of the Book who were to become a nation, a company of nations and a great people, which the Jews are not, nor never can or will be. Because of the lack of this knowledge and understanding in this age which prides itself upon its modern progress and enlightenment, the Divine appraisal is most applicable: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" (Hosea 4: 6).

Politicians, who advocate all-out support for the Zionist State in Palestine, are following in the footsteps of theologians, pastors and evangelists, who wrongly uphold the Jews as God's chosen people. They all ignore the fact that, by refusing to receive Jesus Christ as their Messiah, Jewry is under Divine condemnation. It is prophetically foretold that the Jews would do so and the verdict of the Lord was rendered in advance centuries ago.

Our Lord Jesus confirmed the accuracy of this prophecy when He informed the Jews, who had rejected Him, that the Kingdom would be taken from them and given to a nation (not a church) that would bring forth Kingdom fruit (Matthew 21: 43).

In a parable, Jesus likened Himself to a nobleman who went into a far country to receive a Kingdom. His citizens (who were the Jews) became His enemies (John 7: 1) and sent a message after Him saying: "We will not have this man to reign over us" (Luke 19: 14).

Modern "broad-mindedness" overlooks the essential factor that, when the fundamentals of the position of Jewry are examined, it will be found that Jesus Christ is still rejected, with hatred toward all He represents, also with His teachings as found in the New Testament. Included as an object of hatred are not only the followers of our Lord but also their endeavors to inject into our modern civilization the standards and principles of Christian attitude and conduct. It is fortunate, as the present crisis deepens, that Col. Gordon "Jack" Mohr has written this book exposing the enemy within and recording, from their own writings and utterances, their hatred of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, and their determination to destroy our Lord's followers and His church. In Part II of this book is presented the only available antidote to eliminate all such evil machinations, which would thus completely destroy the present effective use by the Jews of the term "anti-Semitic." The remedy is to acknowledge that we are the seed of Abraham, Isaac-sons, the Anglo-Saxon and kindred people, the Israel of God in the world today and then become willing to conform with the terms of the Covenant God made with our forefathers. This would remove the blindfold from our own eyes and then tear the mask from the face of those to whom Jesus declared, "Ye are of your father the devil" (John 8: 44), and so obliterate all their evil objectives.

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated in Christian love and respect to my friend and kinsman in blood and through Emmanuel's blood, Dr. Howard B. Rand. It is in appreciation for his long years of tireless and courageous defense of the Anglo-Israel Identity. After hundreds of hours in study of his writings, I found them to be consistent with the fundamentals of the apostolic Christian faith. May God grant that his works will be instrumental in leading millions of our Israel people to an understanding of the truth about their identity and to the resulting obligations they incur.

BIOGRAPHY OF THE AUTHOR

The author of this book was born in Chicago, January 1, 1916. He entered the army as an enlisted man during the early days of World War II and served during the North African Campaign and later in Korea. He was promoted through the ranks to Lieutenant Colonel.

While working with the Korean Military Advisory Group in prewar Korea, he was captured by the Communists in an abortive coup, attempted by Communist elements within the South Korean government in October 1948. He was tortured, tried by a People's Court and sentenced to be shot. With the help of a friendly South Korean Sergeant, he was able to escape and when the war began in June 1950, he was advising a Korean Unit on the 38th Parallel, north of Seoul. On the opening day of that war, he was the first American to be wounded and the first to be decorated, receiving a Silver Star. After serving 265 consecutive days on the front lines, and being wounded three times, he returned to the States as one of that war's most decorated soldiers.

Later, working with returning American prisoners, he wrote the first lesson plans and taught the first classes in the Military Code of Conduct.

He retired in 1964 and lives with his wife, Doris, in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, on the Gulf Coast.

For many years he served as a lecturer with the American Opinion Speaker's Bureau of the John Birch Society and as a Baptist "lay" evangelist. He became known for his outspoken stand against liberalism and compromise, both in government and the church. In 1980, he began intensive research into Judaism and the Israel Identity Movement and has become a writer and speaker on this most important subject.

He is available for lectures, Christ and Country Crusades and school seminars, dealing with these and related problems on the American scene. He is G-3 (Plans and Training Officer for the Christian-Patriot's Defense League) and holds an honorary rank of Brigadier General in that organization.

OUR ANCIENT FOE

"Stil 'tis our ancient foe,
Doth seek to work us woe.
His power on earth is great,
And arm'd with cruel hate;
On earth is not his equal."

(From "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" - by Martin Luther)

"Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil." (Jeremiah 13: 23.)

"Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves." (Psalm 80: 6.)

"Servant of God, well done! Well hast thou fought the better fight, who singly hast maintained against revolted multitudes the cause of truth, in word mightier than they in arms, and for the testimony of truth hast borne universal reproach, far worse to bear than violence: for this was all thy care--to stand approved in the sight of God, though worlds judged thee perverse. The easier conquest now remains, aided by this host of friends."
("Paradise Lost" by Milton.)

With these words, the immortal Milton summed up my own experiences in this battle for the minds of men. I am a fundamentalist "lay" evangelist, a man to whom has been given a unique mission. I was brought to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, not in a church, not in an evangelistic service, nor by someone who knocked on my door and showed me the "way to salvation," but in the midst of the terror of a Communist prison in Korea, a year and a half before the war began.

As a boy, I had been raised in the church.
My father had been a Sunday School Superintendent for twenty-eight years. My foster mother had taught Sunday School and was President of the Woman's Missionary Society and the Ladies Aid Society. I made a profession of faith at the age of twelve, was baptized and joined the church.

Filled with a zeal for the Lord's work, inspired, no doubt by the example of my sainted grandfather, E. K. Mohr, whom I loved and who had devoted years to spreading the Word throughout the Midwest, I attended Moody Bible Institute.

When World War II began, I was one of those who went down all "starry eyed with patriotism," to enlist in what I hoped would be the Horse Cavalry. We were mechanized within six months, just after I had saved enough money to buy my first set of "boots and breeches." I served in the Armored Forces, the Paratroop Corps, and finally as an Infantryman, always as a combat soldier.

Unfortunately, when I ran into the temptations of army life, I learned to my sorrow that my religious experiences were only "skin deep."
Though I had fooled a number of pastors and a great number of church members, I had never had that heart changing experience the Bible calls being "born again" (John 3: 3).

Faced with the temptations of overseas army life, I fell deeper and deeper into sin, while turning my back on everything I had been taught was right. It was almost as though I was deliberately trying to prove that my earlier
Christian experience had been a farce.

I was discharged from the army in March 1946 and went back to North Dakota to retire as a rancher and complete my college education. During this period, although I was not a real Christian, I pastored a little Baptist country church.

In June 1948, I was called back into the army and was sent to Korea, as a military advisor with the Korean Military Advisory Group and was assigned to work in the city of Sun'chon, in Chollo'Namdo Province, in the southwestern part of South Korea.

In October 1948, a Communist-led coup broke out among the military, led by Communist dissidents who had infiltrated the services. My regiment at Sun'chon was in the thick of it. During a ten day period, beginning October 28, 1948, the rebel forces took over the city and the surrounding countryside, brutally murdering over 3800 men, women and children. While attempting to negotiate with the rebels, I was captured, was brutally tortured, and finally stood before a People's Court, where I was sentenced to be shot. God was good to me and, with the help of a friendly South Korean Sergeant, I was able to escape and make my way to a Southern Presbyterian Mission Station, run by Dr. John Curtis Crane from South Carolina. I stayed with them until the South Korean forces drove the rebels out of the city.

From my vantage point in the mission compound, I saw Communist hatred at its worst, as it was vented against the Christian population in the city. (Sun'chon was known as the Christian City of South Korea; the Southern Presbyterians had a mission there for 48 years and the Catholics had been there for 43 years.)

After seeing scores of little girls, between the ages of 11 to 13, dragged into the streets by the rebels, to be stripped, raped and beaten to death; after seeing two elderly Catholic nuns crucified against the walls of their church; after seeing babies swung by their heels against a tree or stone wall, or tossed into the air to be caught on the points of bayonets; after seeing a beautiful young girl stripped and raped over and over, then nailed to a tree with spikes driven through her breasts, while a bundle of oil-soaked rice straw was bound between her bare thighs and set on fire, I cried out: "My God, if you will get me out of this mess and get me safely back to the people I love and the country I love, I will do everything in my power to serve you. Lord, I don't know how you can do anything with a wicked man like me, but I believe you can, Save me!" When I did that, the Holy Spirit took over and I became "born again." I have never been afraid of a man since that day. I know that no one can touch me for harm, unless God in His all-knowing wisdom lets them.

You can just bet your "bottom dollar" that I get angry when I see how this country of ours is going down the same road. God not only saved me that day, but He stood beside me when I faced a Red firing squad and somehow or other they fired over my head. He stood beside me for nine horrible months, with 265 consecutive days in a front-line unit, where I was wounded three times. Each time I should have been killed, but I never received more than a scratch. So I can say, that experience was a "turning point" in my life. God kept His promise to me, now I am trying to live up to the promise I made to Him. When I returned to the States in the spring of 1951, I began to speak to anyone who would listen to me.

At this time, the military was not confined by the infamous "Fulbright Memorandum," and I was allowed to speak anywhere, without prior approval from the military. The Commanding General of Fort Ord, California, told me: "I've only got one criterion for you, Mohr; tell 'em the truth; just be sure you can back it up." So I spoke wherever they would have me; in service clubs, churches, schools, anywhere. My message was the same--"America, wake up!"

It wasn't long before I realized that I didn't know very much about Communism, except that I didn't like it. When I would have "head to head" confrontations with the Marxist professors in our school system, they would make a fool out of me, so I began to study. Many a long night was spent in poring over background materials. I read everything I could lay my hands on from the Congressional Record to the Communist Manifesto. It wasn't long before I realized why countless thousands of Christians had been ruthlessly murdered by these barbarians, and why Christianity was their main target.

When I was finally discharged from the army in the fall of 1964, I began to work "full time" at my job as a "watchman on the walls of America." It was a frustrating task, because many good people didn't want to hear the truth.

Most of my work was in churches, since I had seen that the problems which were destroying us were not political at all, but were of a moral and spiritual nature. I began to realize that, unless we attacked these problems from a spiritual standpoint, we would make no headway against them.

With this came the terrible realization that the reason evil was prospering in America was because most Christians refused to become involved in the fight. I recalled the statement made by the British philosopher Edmund Burke: "All that is necessary for evil to succeed; is for good men to do nothing!" This is what the church was doing in this battle for the most part. They have sat in silent frustration on the "sidelines," while the "sin-dominated" geniuses of Moscow and Peking have breathed out "threatenings of everything which is lovely and of a good report." They would say to me: "I don't have to worry about the Communists. I am saved, you know, and Jesus is coming back to rapture me out of this mess before it gets too bad." Talk about being wrapped in a shroud of self-righteousness. I realized that these good people had "become so heavenly minded, they were no earthly good." They had fallen down on their task of being "salt of the earth," and forgot Christ's warning: "But if the salt have lost his savour [its ability to act like salt]...it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men" (Matthew 5: 13). When the church, instead of holding back corruption, adds to that corruption, all hell will break loose in that land.

Today our fundamental and conservative churches, who believe the Word of God and preach about the saving faith of Jesus Christ, all too often fail to realize they are "aiding and abetting the enemy." Often they set themselves up to defend those who are their worst enemies. To Christians who feel they do not need to become involved, I would suggest they speak about the rapture to their brethren behind the Iron Curtain.

I became an evangelist so that I could reach these good church folks, who had been neutralized from the fight by their own preachers. Many of them felt that all they had to do after getting "saved" was to hide in the comforts of their air-conditioned spiritual foxholes, fold their holy hands in prayer and God would handle the "dirty work" He had given them to do. It just doesn't work that way! There is no place in the New Testament that gives Christians the right to do this. Over and over again, from Jesus Christ to the Apostles Peter, James, Jude and John, the message to Christians is "Quit you like men, be strong;" "Occupy till I come!" You can't do that hiding in a foxhole.

My messages were strong meat. They discussed America's pressing problems from a scriptural standpoint. Many church folks would not accept them because they were unpleasant. I did develop a reputation as being uncompromising in my stand against evils in government as well as in the church.

During this same period, I became a member of the John Birch Society and served on their American Opinion Speaker's Bureau for twelve years. My lectures, in spite of some opposition from Society officials, always carried a strong spiritual tone.

When I resigned from the Society in the fall of 1979, it was because of a personal dispute with Birch officials and had nothing to do with the Society itself. Now that I was relieved of a heavy secular speaking schedule, I threw myself into "full time" crusade work. In 1980, I added an extra dimension, by adding school seminars to my crusades. I was on the road 250 days out of the year.

Then in the spring of 1980, something happened which was to drastically change my life once again. For months I had been questioning the "blind allegiance" held by fundamentalists toward Judaism. I knew all the reasons they gave: "They are God's Chosen People; If we don't help them, God will curse America; God has been kind to America because we love the Jews." I had heard them all but I realized that God had not blessed America because we had been kind to the Jews. I was intelligent enough to realize that the worst troubles America had ever faced have come to us since we approved the bandit state of the Israelis in Palestine in 1948.

For the first time in my life, I began to study the situation without accepting as "Gospel truth" what I heard from the pulpit. The more I studied, the more I was convinced that the fundamentalist stand was wrong. I had always been taught that not only must we respect the Jews because they were the Chosen People, but that Judaism stood on uncontestable grounds, because it was the first universal religion which had believed in one God and that Christianity was the child of Judaism. I saw the "Jerry Falwell" idea in operation in most of our churches. I am referring to his statement to Menachem Begin of Israel, when he told this terrorist: "The fundamentalists of America will back you no matter what you do because you are God's chosen." Somehow, on the basis of Bible teaching, this did not seem right. Then one day, during my daily devotions, I read a verse found in II Chronicles 19: 2 which said: "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord."

But you see I didn't know very much about the Jews, because I had never been honest enough to study the situation. I had always lazily been ready to accept anything the preacher told me, or anything I read from some fundamental writer. I was like many Baptists, and almost believed that Dr. Scofield's footnotes were Holy Writ. The more I studied, in not only the Bible, but in history, I found that the idea of one-God was not a Jewish idea. It was taught long before a tribe by the name of Judah ever existed, and long before a man called Abraham was called out of Ur of the Chaldees, to become the father of a very special people.

In Douglas Reed's remarkable book, "The Controversy of Zion," he states on page 1, "The Egyptian Book of the Dead (manuscripts of which were found in the tombs of the kings of 2000 B.C.; long before the Jewish Law was completed) contained this passage: 'Thou art the One, the God from the very beginning of time, the heir of immortality, self-produced and self-born: Thou didst create the earth and make man.'" There are few fundamentalists who could disagree with that. It could have come from our Bible.

As I studied further, I found that the sect, who mastered the tribe of Judah, took this concept of one-God and embodied it in their Scriptures, only to destroy it and set up a creed which was based on its denial. It is denied because Judaism set up the theory of a master race and, to have a master race, that race must itself be God!

The more I studied the Jewish religion, the more I came to realize that the term Judeo-Christian, which we hear so often from our pulpits, is a ridiculous misnomer, for Christianity and Judaism are eons apart. I found that Judaism is a counterfeit religion. The word "counterfeit" means "an imitation, passed off as the real thing for fraudulent purposes." The antichrist, Canaanite Jews, who say they are Jews and are not, are of "the synagogue of Satan" (Revelation 2: 9). They claim to be the Messiah themselves! They claim the Jewish race is the embodiment of the Messiah. They deny the incarnation of God in human flesh, in the form of His Son Jesus Christ, and this places them within the definition of "antichrists," as given in I John 2: 22-23 and II John 7. This, of course, places them in a position of direct enmity to Jesus Christ.

It seems as though most of the problems with our Bible scholars begin when they study Bible history. They seem to concentrate on the year 975 B.C. when the Kingdom of Israel, ruled over by King Solomon, was split at his death, when his son Rehoboam became king (see I Kings 12). At this time in history, there were no people anywhere in the world who were known as Jews. (The first reference to "Jews" in the King James Version comes in II Kings 16: 6, about 742 B.C. In the original 1611 translation of the King James Version of the Bible, the word "Jew" is not found; instead we find the word "Ioudean," which simply means "a resident of Judea." It did not take on a religious connotation until many centuries later.) Yet, in spite of this, fundamental scholars insist on calling these people "Jews" and using the term "Jew" and "Israel" as synonymous. They are not! To indicate they are is the mark of "intellectual dishonesty!"

From the time when the Israel Kingdom was divided, Scripture makes a clear distinction between the House of Judah and the House of Israel. There must be a reason for this! To state that "the Jews are all of Israel," as most of our fundamental leaders do, is a falsehood of the first water, for the people known as Jews do not make up even a small percentage of the Chosen People.

In the fall of 1980, as my studies began to penetrate the "veil of darkness," which fundamental teaching had pulled over my eyes, I became further perturbed by the actions of the Israeli government in Palestine. "Even if they are God's Chosen People," I thought, "it does not give them the right to act as they are doing."

Further study showed me that the most feared enemy of Christianity in this century is Communism and, the more I studied, the more I became convinced that Communism was the "brain-child" of Judaism. An honest study of recent history will convince anyone that it was Eastern European Jews who "masterminded" the Bolshevik Revolution. They are not loath to brag about it themselves. These people are known as "Ashkenazim Jews". They are not relatives of Abraham by any stretch of the most fertile imagination. (Begin is an Ashkenazim Jew.)

One of the most common misconceptions in fundamental circles is that the modern Jews are physical descendants of the twelve tribes of Israel and, as such, are sole representatives of the Israel people in the world today. This is even contrary to the teaching of modern Jewish scholars, who admit that Jews make up only a tiny portion of the House of Jacob.

The well-known and highly respected Jewish author, Alfred Lilienthal, a graduate of Cornell and Columbia Law Schools, a man who served with our State Department both before and after service in the army and who traveled with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles through Arab countries and the Israeli State in 1953, has written several books which completely refute this idea. (See his "What Price Israel?," "There Goes the Middle East," "The Other Side of Zion," and his latest and most fascinating book, an 845-page book entitled "The Zionist Connection.")

Speaking about the ten tribes which were taken into captivity in Assyria, in his book, "What Price Israel?," he states on pages 215-216: "Twelve tribes started in Canaan about 35 centuries ago, and not only ten of them disappeared--more than half of the remaining tribes never returned from their exile in Babylon."

Our preachers today seem to believe that the Jews are a remarkably pure race, who can trace their ancestry back to Abraham. This feeling can be seen in a statement made to me by a lady from Dallas, when she found that I was preaching that the Jews were not true Israel. She indignantly said: "Everyone knows that the Jews descended from Abraham. The Bible tells us this, and that's that!" Now I admire anyone who believes the Bible is true, but this kind of thinking is ridiculous, for the Bible says nothing about Abraham's descendants being called "Jews."

Again referring to "What Price Israel?," Lilienthal says on page 215: "The Jews have mingled most. Until the middle of the 5th Century B.C., intermarriage was a normal phenomenon in Israelite life and the ensuing Judaist proselyting over the globe, brought people into Judaism from all races."

On page 224 he goes on to say: "It is, in fact, the unanimous conclusions of anthropologists from Weissenberg, Hertz and Fishberg (themselves Jews), to Boas, Ripley, Mead, Pittard and others, that wherever Jews are found, they most closely resemble the people among whom they live." Dr. Pittard says: "There is no more a Christian race than a Muslim race, neither is there such a thing as a Jewish race." This same conclusion was made by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

Columbia University anthropologists in their book, "The Races of Mankind," say: "Jews are a people who acknowledge the Jewish religion. They are of all races, even Negro and Mongolian. European Jews are of many different biological types." So much for the myth that the Jews are a race. It just isn't so!

Lilienthal comments: "The descriptive name Judaism was never heard by the Hebrews or the Israelites; it appears only in Christianity. Flavius Josephus was one of the first to use the name in his recital of the war with the Romans; it was used to connote totality of beliefs."

On top of this "mishmash" of people who are now called "Jews," few of our preachers have ever heard of, to say anything about admitting to, the fact that possibly as many as 90% of the people we now know as Jews trace their heritage back to the Khazar Kingdom in Russia, which was incorporated into Judaism in the Eighth Century A.D. These people were of Turco-Finnish background and had no connection whatsoever with Abraham. Their forefathers most certainly never set foot in the Holy Land.

Lilienthal says of them:

"These Ashkenazim Jews (as the Jews from Eastern Europe are properly called), whose numbers were swelled by Jews who fled

Germany at the time of the Crusades and during the epidemic of the Black Death, have little or no trace of Semite blood.

"That the Khazars are lineal ancestors of Eastern European Jews is an historical fact. Jewish historians and religious textbooks acknowledge the fact; though propagandists of Jewish nationalism belittle this as pro-Arab propaganda."

When Lilienthal speaks about the claim the Zionists, who are almost all Russian Jews, have to Palestine, he says: "Here's a paradox, a most ingenious paradox in anthropological fact. Many Christians have much more Hebrew-Israelite blood in their veins than most of their Jewish neighbors." Of course, most of our preachers refuse to accept this proven fact. Instead they reveal their ignorance by continuing to spout their "Jews are the Chosen People" theory.

Those of you, who believe and preach that the present regathering of the Jews in Palestine is the return of Israel to the Promised Land, are in for a rude and very embarrassed awakening. Even the Jews know they are not Judah, to say anything about them being "all of Israel." They have very little, if any, connection with Israel, Abraham or Jacob.

Even more important, Scripture teaches that they are never to return to Palestine in totality, only representatively. The rest were to go to the "Appointed Place," mentioned in II Samuel 7: 10 (more about this later).

As I began to study contemporary history, I was amazed to find that Judaism, or rather Babylonian Talmudism as it should more accurately be called, was the founder and foundation of Communism. The Jewish Ashkenazim element in Russia were the leaders, fomenters, and brains behind the Bolshevik Revolution. It is quite interesting to compare the bragging of Jewish authorities, as to their part in this revolution, with the fundamentalists who throw up their hands in horror at the thought.

The Jewish Chronicle in 1918 stated: "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism are consonant [agree] with the finest ideals of Judaism."

Marcus Eli Ravage, a Jewish writer, in the January 1928 issue of Century Magazine, said: "We Jews are at the bottom of nearly all your wars; not only of the Russian, but of every major revolution in your history....We did it solely with the irresistible might of our spirit, with our ideas and propaganda."

Oscar Levy, a well-known Jewish writer, in the preface to his book, "The World Significance of the Russian Revolution," wrote: "There is scarcely an event in modern European history that cannot be traced back to the Jews. We Jews are today nothing else but the world's seducers, its executioners, its incendiaries, its destroyers."

As far back as 1888, Goldwin Smith, Jewish Professor of Modern History at Oxford University said: "We regard our race as superior to humanity; and look forward, not to its ultimate union with other races, but to its triumph over them." (Remember, these are Jews, speaking about Jews and Jewish aspirations. If I were to say anything even closely resembling these truths, you would immediately slap me with an "anti-Semitic" label.)

When I began to study more modern history, I discovered that most of the modern American traitors have been Jews; those who sold the atomic secrets to the Communists were Ashkenazim Jews. Don't argue about it, just check out the facts!

It was when I saw this that I began to realize that the money and the brains behind the moral cancer, which is destroying our White Christian nations, is Jewish. This is why organizations such as Moral Majority, no matter how well-meaning they may be, will never make much headway against these evils. You cannot fight evil on one hand, while you subsidize it on the other. (This was the fallacy of our military program in Vietnam.) This is what Moral Majority seeks to do. They chop off the arms of the evil octopus which is destroying us, but they refuse to strike at its Jewish heart. One thing we need to remember is that a "nation cannot exist half-Christian and half-heathen, any more than it could exist half-slave and half-free."

You may disagree quite violently about my assessment of the Jewish people but, rather than argue with you, I suggest you look at the names behind the evils which are destroying us. Who is it that mans the abortion clinics, which murder three million (mostly white) American babies every year? They are mostly Jewish doctors. Who controls our news media which "brainwashes" our people with daily pro-Zionist propaganda? They are Jews. (More about this later.) Who controls Hollywood and the TV networks? Who is the brains behind the "mafia," the dope trade, the prostitution, the pornography which has debased American womanhood? Who owns the liquor industry which is indirectly responsible for 25,000 deaths on our highways each year and for nine million alcoholics, who are slaves to this evil? You name it and you will find Jewish names in position of prominence behind it all! Why? Because the Jewish mentality is such, that it will make money off anything, even if it has to "sell its soul" to do so!

Every major evil that the Moral Majority claims to abhor, everything which is helping destroy America and the Christian church, can be traced back to the ones our pastors call God's Chosen People. No wonder they are universally hated! Check out the facts, I dare you! These anti-Christ people have cost the Christian nations of the world untold billions of dollars and uncounted suffering, because of their long-range plans to destroy us and they are taught these ideas in their synagogues. No wonder our risen Lord called them "the synagogue of Satan" (Rev. 2: 9; 3: 9).

One day, after hundreds of hours of prayerful study and armed with irrefutable facts, I went to see my pastor. "Brother Bob," I said, "I have some facts here you need to know about. I don't expect you to accept them, or even believe them, but you need to know about them." He glanced at the material and, when he found it was uncomplimentary toward the Jews, he threw it into his wastebasket and literally accused me of being an "apostate." Yet I was the same man who had occupied his pulpit the week before and had drawn his praise. He went on to say: "If you insist on putting out this trash, the door of every Baptist church in America will be slammed in your face." I didn't believe him at the time but have found it to be true! The fundamentalists, for the most part, refuse to accept this truth.

One of the most powerful leaders in Moral Majority told me: "I can't understand why, after all the support I have given them, that my strongest opponents are Jews." When I presented my argument, he said: "There is nothing I can say to refute what you have told me, but I cannot go against the teaching of my church." God have mercy on us!

Since I detest a hypocrite and have always refused to "sail under false colors," I wrote a rather lengthy letter, which some of you may have read. I spent several hundred dollars having this printed and mailed. It described my newfound position. This letter was mailed to 200 fundamental pastors, with whom I had worked in the past. It resulted in cancellation of fourteen Crusades which had been scheduled for 1981.

Here are some of the typical letters I received. One from Pensacola Christian College, where I was scheduled to hold a two-day seminar: "Recently I received some information concerning your position in regard to the Jews [I had sent it to him]. Unfortunately, this position is one we could most definitely not support; and, therefore, I am going to have to ask you to cancel our meeting," Signed: A. A. Baker, Vice President.

In January 1981, I received this letter from Fairhaven Baptist College, Chesterton, Indiana. (I had been there several times in the past for seminars and Crusades and had always had a most friendly reception.) This letter said: "I received your letter regarding the Jewish question. I am going to have to ask you to cancel our meetings scheduled on November 15-20, 1981. I realize you would do nothing to embarrass the church or school...but, if you believe as strongly as it comes across in your letter, then you are going to preach what you believe to be the truth regardless," Signed: Bill Beherens, Vice President.

There is something I want you to notice about these two letters, which were representative of many others I received. No questions were ever raised about the truth of my statements, or about my fundamental Christian stand. It all hinged on my acceptance of the Jews, according to their standards. What mattered most was that I was "stepping on a sacred cow," and this they could not have. (In all fairness, I need to say that the pastor of the Fairhaven Church is one of the most fearless individuals I have ever known, when it comes to preaching the Gospel and taking a stand on moral issues. He has suffered considerably for his stand, but he refuses to take a stand on the Jewish issue.) Again, I say, how very sad!

People who had formerly been my friends attacked me. I received special notice in The Projector, from Milton, Florida. (I had held two Crusades in their church and had spoken in their school.) I received special notice from Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina. Not because I refused to preach the truth, not because I refused to accept and defend the divinity of Jesus Christ, but because I refused to put my "seal of approval" on God's bitterest enemies.

In Esther 8: 17, of the Old Testament, we read: "And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the FEAR OF THE JEWS FELL UPON THEM." (Emphasis added.) This was a malady of the early church. You can read about it in John 7: 13: "Howbeit no man spake openly of him [Jesus], for FEAR OF THE JEWS." (Emphasis added.) John 19: 38: "And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly FOR FEAR OF THE JEWS." (Emphasis added.) John 20: 19: "The doors were shut where the disciples were assembled FOR FEAR OF THE JEWS." (Emphasis added.) So you see, this feeling is not new among Christians and is a malady which affects most of our preachers today--"FEAR OF THE JEWS." It has turned them into spiritual cowards.

With this as an introduction, I want to go on to further explain my position and show you that, when you accept the truth of the Bible, rather than the teachings of some seminarian, Bible teacher, or preacher, a whole new vista of truth will open up for you.

Let me begin by asking you a simple question. (The answer will be between God and you.) How many of you, who are reading this message today, have ever bothered to check out the Scriptures for yourself, to find out what the Bible says about the Jews? Or do you accept everything your pastor tells you, without reservation?

The major problems with Judaism began when the Southern Kingdom of Judah was taken captive into Babylon, about 610 B.C. At this time, these people followed the Mosaic law. It was the basis of their religious belief, even though they had been careless in following it for a long time, but in Babylon a drastic change took place. The greedy priesthood, looking for ways to control the people, began to form a new religion, based on a book which is now called the Babylonian Talmud. This book, of 63 volumes, which gives "lip service" to the laws of Moses, the "Torah," nevertheless looks for ways to bypass them. Its formation took over a thousand years and it blended the old Hebrew faith, with the heathen Baal worship of Babylon, replete with its devil worship and the occult practices which Moses had expressly condemned.

This was the same religious group with whom Christ dealt in the gospel account of the New Testament; they were called Pharisees. It was this group to whom He referred as "vipers, hypocrites, children of hell."

When you learn something about this satanic, Talmudic religion (which the Jews strive to keep secret from Gentile eyes), you will begin to understand Jewish thinking and why Jesus told their religious leaders: "In vain they [the Jews] do worship me [God], teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matthew 15: 9). In Mark 7: 13, he says of them: "Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition."

By 458 B.C. these people, most of whom were by now "half-breeds" (see both Ezra and Nehemiah for confirmation) and many of whom had no Abrahamic blood in their veins (see Esther 8: 17), had so perverted the Mosaic teachings they taught that all worshipers of God had to live in what they called the Promised Land of Palestine.

It became obvious that, as this people increased in size, there would not be room for them in little Palestine. In order to control their people, they developed a teaching that their people automatically became captives of any land where they sojourned, even if they went there of their own free will, and it was their duty to "root out, pull down, and destroy" these people, even those who had befriended them.

In no area of Europe was this teaching more plainly seen than in Spain. The Jews had been received with respect and lived in peace and prosperity, but, when the Moorish invasion began, it was the Jews who turned traitor and opened the gates of the Spanish cities to the Moorish invaders. For this they were amply rewarded, but earned the enmity of the Spanish people.

In country after country in Europe, Jews were bitterly persecuted and expelled, not because they were God's people, as some would have you believe, but because of their treason, wickedness, and corrupt business dealings. Today, they are doing the same thing in America.

Whenever any anti-Christ issue arises in this country, whether over prayer and Bible reading in the schools, sex education, immoral textbooks, the singing of Christmas carols and the showing of nativity scenes, check and see who leads the attack. In almost 100% of the cases, it will be the Jewish-led and Jewish-controlled American Civil Liberties Union (the A.C.L.U.). Nine times out of ten, it will be a Jew who brings the issue into court. You know this as well as I do! Yet you still continue to honor them by saying they are God's chosen ones. The Jews are not out to destroy Christmas and Easter as holidays—they make too much money off Gentiles during those times--but they desire to take Christ out of these celebrations which originally were in His honor.

The Judaites of the 4th Century B.C. were a completely different "breed of cats" from those of David's time. They had by then completely destroyed the vision of a universal, loving God of all men, and had developed instead the creed of Judaism, which called for a "master race," as surely as anything Adolph Hitler ever taught. From this time on, the Pharisaic-led Jews became the most obnoxious people on the face of the earth. They were ingrained with an overbearing pride and a "creed of hatred," which looked on all non-Jew "goyim," as "cattle," rather than human beings. This is thoroughly taught in the Talmud. They completely and conveniently forgot the admonition of Moses in Exodus 22: 21: "Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt."

The achievements of the priests who mastered Judah, and later became known as Pharisees, can be seen in their religious counterparts during the time of Christ. He reserved His bitterest denunciations for these religious charlatans. The bloodthirsty ideas of these men can be found in modern Jewish religious writings and in the statements of Jewish leaders. In 1918, Count Mensdorf, the Jewish Ambassador from Austria to England, gloated over World War I, as he said: "Israel won this war; we made it; we thrived on it; we profited from it! It was our supreme revenge on Christianity." Indeed it was, for in that war Anglo-Saxon Christians had been seduced into fighting and killing Anglo-Saxon Christians, while the Jews became rich and powerful over the suffering of millions.

Some of the Jews of nobler minds have recognized and deplored the chaos brought about by Jewish thinking. Listen to Dr. Oscar Levy, as he laments over the actions of his people: "We Jews have erred...we have most grievously erred.

And if there was truth in our error 3,000 years, nay 100 years, ago, there is now nothing but falseness and madness, a madness which will produce an even greater misery and an even wider anarchy. I confess it to you, openly and sincerely....We, who promised to lead the world into heaven, have only succeeded in leading you into a new hell. There has been no progress, least of all moral progress. And it is our [Jewish] morality which has prohibited all real progress and--what is worse--which stands in the way of all future and natural reconstruction, in this ruined world of ours. I look at this world and shudder at its ghastliness; I shudder all the more, as I know the SPIRITUAL AUTHORS OF THIS GHASTLINESS." (Emphasis added.) Not many Jews have the courage to admit this and not many Christians are willing to accept its truth.

The Jews come to the Christian world protesting what they call "centuries of persecution." The word, "Holocaust," has become a "trigger word" on the American scene. Yet another brave Jew comes to his fellow Jews and tells them: "We come to the nations pretending to escape persecution, and WE ARE THE MOST DEADLY PERSECUTORS IN THE WRETCHED ANNALS OF MAN." I'm sure the Palestinian Arabs would agree with him!

I could continue with such examples for page after page, but I believe these examples will suffice. For centuries the Shylocks of International Jewry have sat in their "counting houses," of Europe and America, while a horde of sweating mankind has labored in their factories, under the constant threat of Jew-led strikes and dissensions.

Benjamin Franklin realized this danger and, in an address delivered before the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia in 1787, he said:

"In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers, they have lowered its moral tone, depreciated its commercial integrity, have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated. They have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion, have built up a State within a State, and have, when opposed, tried to strangle that country financially.

"If you do not exclude them from the United States in the Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed in in such great numbers, that they will dominate and devour the land and change our form of government. If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish them substance, while they will be in the counting houses, rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves. Jews, gentiles, are Asiatics, they will never be otherwise."

Unfortunately, we must have had some Jerry Falwells and David Webbers in Philadelphia, for they failed to listen to this honored American and have brought ruin to our shores.

Napoleon saw through their racket in France and was made helpless by international Jewish power. Abraham Lincoln was one of the few Americans who saw how they were trying to control our finances and, along with this, our economics and, when he tried to institute constitutional money reforms, he was assassinated. Adolph Hitler saw what they were doing to a Germany, who had at first befriended them, and he too was sacrificed on the "altar of Jewish greed and hatred."

Today, because of the utter stupidity or cupidity (avarice; inordinate desire for wealth) of our leaders, both in politics and religion, our White Christian civilization, which has brought so much good to the world, has been strangled by these alien, international leeches. They will not be content until they have bled us dry and we lie supine at their feet.

In Psalm 80: 6, the Psalmist wrote: "Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves." How Satanists like Menachem Begin must laugh in their secret meetings, as they see Christian leaders like Falwell, Webber and Van Impe, prostrate themselves before the Talmudic idol, selling their Israelite "birthright" for a mess of "vile smelling Jewish-Socialist pottage."

Most Christians believe the Jews revere the Old Testament. Listen to this quote from the late, very prestigious Rabbi Emil Hirsch: "They tell you Moses never lived; I acquiesce [agree]. If they tell me that the story that came from Egypt is mythology, I do not protest: it is mythology! They tell me that the book of Isaiah, as we have it today, is composed of the writings of three and perhaps four different periods. I knew this before they ever told me, before they ever knew it, it was my conviction."

Yet in spite of this and many other Jewish statements downgrading the Old Testament, most of our Christian leaders have been so sloshed around in the "Jewish mind detergent" of our times (a brainwashing solution made up of "an ounce of fact, dissolved in a gallon of hog-wash"), that they believe the Jews are strong defenders of the Old Testament. It is probably true that not one in a thousand Christians, who support Zionism, realize that, by their own figures, more than 75% of all Jews are either agnostics or outright atheists.

Dr. Joseph Kastein, a well-known Jewish authority on ancient Jewish history and a fervent supporter of Zionism, believes that the law laid down in the Old Testament must be fulfilled to the letter. But at the same time, using the principle of "doublethink" (believing two contrary principles at the same time), he says the law is seriously flawed and cannot be trusted. He differs in this from fundamental Christians, who believe every word of the Bible is true. (I believe this also of the original texts.)

Kastein teaches that the Old Testament was a political program, drafted specifically to meet the conditions of their time, and frequently revised to meet changing conditions. He says the Egyptian captivity, the slaying of the Egyptian firstborn, the exodus from Egypt, and the conquest of Canaan, are all myths. He goes on to explain by saying that this ancient history was invented by Hebrew priests and the lesson of vengeance on the non-Jew "Goyim" was implanted in Jewish minds for the purpose of affecting their dealings with the Gentiles forever. Again remember this idea is not from some "anti-Semitic" source. All I am doing is repeating it.

By the time the Judaites had returned from Babylonian captivity with their Talmud--first about 536 B.C. under Ezra, then a later and larger group about 445 B.C. under Nehemiah--they had intermarried with the native Canaanites to the point where their children could not even understand the language of the Jew (see Nehemiah 13: 24).

While most Christians believe that the Jews remained of pure blood, this was not the case. This is one of the reasons such care was taken in tracing Christ's bloodline back to David. (But this is the exception, rather than the rule.) When Jerusalem was destroyed by the Romans in 70 A.D., their records were destroyed and no one can say with certainty today: "I am a Jew, of the blood of Abraham."

If you will go back into the Bible and Jewish secular history, you will find that the tribe of Judah, from the very beginning, had a strange look about them. They never got along well with the rest of the Israelite people. They seem to have been set aside from their fellows, rather than to have been chosen. The Jewish Encyclopaedia flatly states: "In all likelihood, Judah was a non-Israelitish tribe." (Their words, not mine.)

This tribe, from which we get our present English words, "Judaism, Jewish, and Jew," set out into the future, saddled with a doctrine which was drawn up, not by Moses, at the order of God, but by the Levitical priesthood. These, very early in Judah's history, set out to completely control them. They produced a people who are dedicated to destruction. In Isaiah 3: 9, we read about these people: "The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom." This special facial characteristic has sometimes been called the Jewish look and is characteristic of all Jews who can trace their ancestry back to Judah.

In Isaiah 65: 15, the prophet speaks further about these people: "And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen [yes, God had a Chosen People all right, but they were not Jews]: for THE LORD GOD SHALL SLAY THEE, and call his servants by another name." (Could this be what Jesus referred to in Luke 19: 27, when He stated how in the "end time," "those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me"?)

In marked contrast to this, Isaiah states of Israel (62: 2): "The Gentiles [nations] shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou [Israel] shalt be called by a NEW NAME, which the mouth of the Lord shall name." (Emphasis added.)

But I am getting a bit ahead of my story!

When Israel split off from Judah, about 975 B.C. (see I Kings 12), they rejected the creed of Judaism and went their own way. When the modern day Zionists adopted the name Israel for their new state in Palestine in 1948, it was a deliberate, transparent falsehood. The new state had absolutely nothing to do with Israel and its people were not Israelites, in fact, a majority of them were not even Jews by blood.

While I was in the process of putting this manuscript together, I received a fascinating letter from a "born again" Jew. He is associated with a Hebrew organization called the Assemblies of Yahshua, in Baltimore, Maryland. He had read an article of mine, printed in the Christ is the Answer periodical, entitled "Exploding the 'Chosen People' Myth." Here is what he said in part:

"SHALOM: - Greetings in THE NAME of the only wise ELOHIM, Our blessed Messiyah and Savior, YAHSHUA!" (Psalms 68: 4; Matthew 1: 21-23; John 1: 1-3, 10-14; 5: 43 and Acts 4: 12.)

"I have been very disappointed with both Judaism and Christendom. JUDAISM pretends to be ELOHIM'S CHOSEN PEOPLE, and they also pretend to believe the Torah (Law); yet they do not live by the Torah! Likewise, CHRISTENDOM pretends to believe ALL the Bible, both Old and New Covenant Scriptures; yet, they do not live by the teaching of the Messiyah nor His Apostles! (Matthew 4: 4; Isaiah 8: 20; Matthew 22: 29; I Thessalonians 5: 21 and GELAH or Revelation 22: 18-19.)

"The MASSORITES of the Great Synagogue were very instrumental in the establishing or founding of Christendom! They went into an alliance with Alexander the Great, after they had translated the original Hebrew

Scrolls of the Old Covenant Scriptures into Aramic, which is Asiatic Yiddish, and then into Greek. This paved the way for them to utilize the Greek (mythology) Churches of the Gnostics and the Coptics for the Roman Empire (political church), which is now commonly known in Christendom as the Roman Catholic Church! Since Judaism failed to get the Messiyah to accept their Political Philosophy, and political offers to set up an Earthly Kingdom--with the Pharisees and Saducees as His Political Bosses--they had Him crucified by the Romans, and then went on to attempt to set up a 'One-World Government' (Catholic or Universal) by salvaging the divided Gnostic Church. (The Coptics had broken away from the Gnostics, just as the Protestants broke away from the Roman Catholics) for their own objectives and political gain and control of the entire world. This 'Religious-Political Battle' has never ceased, and it will not cease until the Messiyah returns, and overthrows ALL the kingdoms of this evil world system and gives ALL these kingdoms to His Saints. (Daniel 7: 9-27; Matthew 6: 9; and GELAH or Revelation 11: 15.)

"This drastic WORLD CHANGE will take place at the Last Trump, which is the Seventh Trumpet (I Corinthians 15: 50-54 and GELAH or Revelation 11: 15). From the natural point of view, it looks impossible...but ELOHIM will intervene and thereby offset and delay Satan's plans in establishing their own One-World Government. ELOHIM's Divine Plan of the Ages will be done, whether Judaism or Christendom cares to believe it or not!

"TRUTH IS FAR STRANGER THAN FICTION! NEITHER JUDAISM OR CHRISTENDOM has the Truth! The Almighty YAHVAH ELOHIM never used any Judaite to serve in His Levitical Priesthood, nor in His Royal Priesthood of the Melchizedek Order. The MESSIYAH never identified any of His followers as Jews or Christians! He simply called them Disciples! AMEN AND AMEN!

"No form of government can function properly apart from the Torah (ELOHIM'S DIVINE LAWS)! Any nation or kingdom who thinks or assumes they can remain strong and stable, apart from the Torah, are only fooling themselves!

"AS A CHRISTIAN AMERICAN PATRIOT, you are doing a great work! But what are your objectives? I shall read your materials very carefully. I seek only YAHVAH'S Divine Will for my life, and not my own. Please feel free to send me any literature which you think would contribute to my Spiritual welfare and well-being."

I put this letter in this message because I wanted you to see that all Jews do not believe as our fundamentalists do!

The Encyclopaedia Britannica says that Judaism developed "long after the Israelites merged themselves with mankind" and that the true relationship between the two peoples (Judah and Israel) can be best expressed in the phrase: "The Israelites were not Jews!" Yet our learned Bible scholars and our less learned preachers continue to insist: "The Jews are all of Israel!" Fundamentalist brother, your ignorance is showing!

Judah survived Israel by a hundred years or so and brought forth Judaism, which in turn begat their illegitimate child called "Zionism." Israel disappeared into Assyrian captivity and is heard of no more on the Bible scene, except for remote hints in the New Testament, but there is absolutely no historical or Biblical proof that they ceased to exist.

Racial discrimination and segregation were not practiced strictly in the time of David and Solomon, as can be seen by David's adulterous affair with Bath-sheba, who was a Hittite. (Zionist apologists say she was a Jewess married to a Hittite, but this is mere supposition. She was the daughter of Ammiel but I have been unable to find out what her nationality really was.)

After the split between the two nations occurred, Dr. Kastein states: "The two states had nothing more in common, for good or evil, than any other two countries with a common frontier." We know from Bible history that they occasionally fought with each other and at other times were in alliance against invaders, but the Judaites, from whence cometh the Jew, taught that they were a "race set apart." Thus the breach became final. This same prejudice is as common today, as it was in Jesus' time. They looked with a great deal of scorn on the people from the north and contemptuously called them "Samaritans." You may remember that is what they called our Lord! Today, the Israeli Jews are among the most prejudiced in the world and have shown a great deal of contempt for the 200,000 Black Jews who are living in their country.

A careful study of the 200 years Judah and Israel existed as separate countries will reveal that the voices of the Hebrew prophets (not Jews) were constantly blasting the creed of the Levitical priesthood for all manner of evils against the people. These Levites were even then creating the Satanic evil Jewish holy book, called the Talmud.

The voices of these ancient prophets still cry out to all mankind, out of the darkness which beclouds the time until Jesus' first Advent. They constantly flay the creed which was developing within Judaism. This was the same procedure followed by our Master, when He took up His earthly ministry. The Pharisees, the major political party of Judaism, were His worst enemies; they finally succeeded in murdering Him. But praise God, they could not keep Him in that garden tomb. Today, they are still His most virulent enemies.

Most of the Bible prophets were Israelites; a majority of them Josephites. They were on the road to the truth about the "one God for all men," that was the teaching of the Christ. They were the Protestants of their day, warning of the dangers posed by "bogus Jews," just as the risen Christ warned the Church of Smyrna in Revelation 2: 9 about "them which say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

A careful study of these prophets will reveal that they were constantly rebuking the priestly doctrine of slaying and enslaving the heathen. They cried out that God desired moral behavior, neighborly conduct and justice towards the poor, the fatherless, widows and the oppressed. It was on the basis of this teaching that our American Republic was founded, with an intense desire for "liberty and justice for all." (The Jews detest this teaching, as can be seen in their support for Communism.)

While our modern fundamentalist preachers say, with a straight face, that Israel disappeared without a trace into the Assyrian Empire, the Zionists do not believe this. As far as the modern Jew is concerned, these so-called "lost tribes" have been pronounced "dead." They have suffered the same fate that an orthodox Jew suffers when he marries a "goyim." As far as the Jews are concerned, Israel has ceased to exist.

History proves that the Israelites did not disappear; they did not become extinct. Peoples do not become extinct. The North American Indians, the New Zealand Maoris, the South African Bantus are all proof of this. Somewhere in the world there must be people of Israelite blood. (We will seek to find them in Part II.)

The feelings of the Jews toward the Israelites can be seen in the Talmudic teaching which says: "The ten tribes have no share in the world to come." (They are not referring to some Jewish heaven, but to a Jew dominated, one-world government, which they have zealously advocated since their return from Babylon.)

When the Zionists used the term "Israel" to describe their "bogus" state in Palestine, they were guilty of forgery. I believe their reasoning was quite simple. They knew it would appeal to those in the Christian world, who seemed to think that they need to help God in His fulfilling of prophecy. I sometimes feel these men pray for the success of the Jews, not because they love them so much, but because they are so anxious to prove their interpretation of prophecy has been right.

The modern state of the Israeli thrives on terror and brutality. The "Mossad," the Israeli intelligence apparatus, has become known worldwide for its terrorist methods and the brutality of its torture. State officials around the world have been intimidated by Mossad threats. While our fundamental preachers cry "great crocodile tears" for the persecuted Jews, seldom if ever do they cry out against Jewish brutality, which since 1917 has been responsible for the deaths of over thirty-four million Christians in Communist lands.

Why is it that our media, the newspapers and TV, never mention the Christian Holocaust? They certainly love to "rub our noses in a constant application of Jewish Holocaust bunk." You know the answer. It is in the Jewish control of our press.

Now before you get angry and turn me off completely, let me remind you that every major news outlet in the United States is either owned outright or controlled by Jewish interests. Please don't try and argue with me about this, just look at the facts.

Let me give you a sample: ABC (American Broadcasting Company, Inc.) corporate level control, six Jews, headed by Leonard Goldenson, Chairman of the Board; CBS (Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc.) corporate level control, four Jews, headed by William Paley, Chairman of the Board; NBC (National Broadcasting Co., Inc., subsidiary of RCA Corporation) corporate level control, five Jews, headed by Robert Sarnoff, Major Stockholder; Metro-Media Television has ten major TV stations, all Jewish owned and controlled, Director Herbert Klein.

On the newspaper level, there are at least 909 major newspapers which are either Jewish owned or controlled. Examples:

(Notice the interconnection between many of these newspapers.)

You can see that Jewish control reaches into every major city and every major newspaper in the United States. A total of 59,398,304 people in this country are being "brainwashed" on a daily basis by Jewish-controlled news, no wonder it is almost 100% pro-Zionist.

Forty-one major magazines, reaching a weekly reading public of some 77,292,298 people, are either Jewish owned or controlled. Among these are: TV Guide; Family Circle; McCall's; Good Housekeeping; Redbook; Time; Newsweek; Sports Illustrated; Cosmopolitan; U.S. News and World Report; Popular Science; Popular Mechanics; Esquire; Sports Afield; Fortune; Harper's Bazaar; Saturday Review; and Harper's National Review.

This is why news, such as items concerning the so-called Jewish "Holocaust," is "force fed" to the American people, while we seldom ever hear anything about the millions of Christians killed by Jewish-Communism. The Jews, using this news control, have been able to milk countless billions in reparations from the non-Jewish world, many times paying for Jews who are still alive. What do you think would be the reaction of the Jewish world if the refugees in Russia would ask for reparations of their family members killed by the Bolsheviks? There would be the greatest scream of anguish this world has ever heard.

The acts of the early Bolshevik government, against Christians in Russia, express this same hatred. Many times the most insane hatred was carried out by Jews, who were often in charge of the Secret Police and the Labor Camps. At this time, according to Jewish sources, 90% of the leadership in Russia was made up of Khazar Ashkenazim Jews.

To an orthodox Jew, you are an idolater, and Jesus Christ is your false God. Instead of a Judeo-Christianity, as we have been taught in most of our churches, Christianity is diametrically opposed to what Judaism teaches. This is why the term "Judeo-Christian" nauseates me. It is a lie out of the pits of hell.

You may know many nice Jews. I have known some too. But the problem is that the most enlightened Jew cannot entirely divest himself from considering the world from other than a Jewish viewpoint. This is even true with the so-called converted Jew, who still brags of his "Jewishness." This is the legacy of 2500 years of teaching and thinking. I have known of converted Jews who still think of themselves as Jews, and when the "chips are down," I imagine most of them would react as Jews. Even those, who see and understand the utter destructive fallacy of Talmudic teachings, cannot divest themselves entirely from this Jewish concept. Besides, most Christians do not realize that it has been Jewish policy for many years, approved by the Talmudic teachings, for a Jew to feign conversion to Christianity, so they can infiltrate the church and thereby better destroy it.

From personal observation, I have noticed many times, when Jews make a so-called conversion to Christianity, they almost immediately become totally immersed in the business of the church; they will attempt to get on as many committees as possible; they will attend every meeting, many times with a tape recorder. You may say: "This is because Jewish converts are more sincere than others." In some cases this may be so but, from conversations with Jews, I know they are taught to infiltrate the Christian church for the purpose of destroying it. I don't mean to criticize any Jew who has a real Christian experience, but I have found them to be the nosiest people imaginable.

Now this becomes serious, as the Jewish population becomes larger and larger. In America, the immigration of Russian Jews has reached epidemic proportions. (Remember now, these Russian Jews have no hereditary link with ancient Israel.) Today, we find Jews deserting both Russia and the Israeli in droves. They are coming to America as though it were the Promised Land. Most of them do not come as political refugees, as we have been led to believe, but because, in spite of all our economic problems, America is still the best place in the world to live. If these Russian immigrants were Christians, most of them would be deported but, because of the strong Jewish lobby in Washington, backed by Jewish money, they are able to "thumb their noses" at the immigration authorities and illegal Jews are coming in by the thousands.

While we sometimes worry about the illegals coming across the Rio Grande from Mexico and about those from Haiti and the Far East, our biggest problem at this time is the influx of illegal Russian Jews. This, of course, is kept a secret by the Jewish-controlled press.

For ten years America's Jewish population remained at about six million. Then suddenly, for no apparent reason, it skyrocketed to seven and a half million almost overnight. Some Jewish authorities place it at eleven million. It is estimated that there are 500,000 illegal Jewish immigrants living in America. How did they get here? They came as tourists or students and never left.

Then, too, to add to the tragedy, legal Jewish immigration has grown year by year. In 1973, 20,000 young people from the State of the Israeli (Sabra's--native born Jews) of draft age left for the United States. By 1980, over 30,000 Jews each year were leaving Palestine for the United States. While, according to Jewish statistics, only 1,000 per month were immigrating to the State of the Israeli, 40,000 to 50,000 were leaving each year. Does this sound to you like a return to the Holy Land, as predicted by our preachers? The Jews say: "It is nothing short of disaster."

It has been a disaster, for the United States in particular, for these Jews have not been coming here for their protection, but for the economic benefits they can receive. They have brought with them a completely alien, anti-Christian, anti-American concept and have become a power in Washington. Certainly the Democratic Party has wooed them and has become tainted by the socialist ideas which permeate our "give away" society.

Perhaps the reason for this can best be explained by a Jew. In 1934, the New York Jew Samuel Roth had a book published by the Golden Hind Press entitled "Jews Must Live." I wish I had the space to quote from him in detail, but will only give a few of his ideas. Here is what he said of his own people:

"Our major vice of old, as of today, is parasitism. We are a people of vultures living on the labor and the good nature of the rest of the world. But despite our faults, we would never have done so much damage to the world if it had not been for our genius for evil leadership....The shame of Jewry comes not from our being the bankers and the old clothesmen of the world. It comes rather of the stupendous hypocrisy and cruelty imposed on us by our fatal leadership.

"Read for yourself the story of the progress of Jewry throughout Europe and America. Wherever they have come they are welcomed, permitted to settle down, and join in the general business of the community. But one by one the industries of the country close to them because of their unfair practices--until it is impossible to longer hold in check the wrath of a betrayed people. There is violence and, invariably, an ignominious ejection of the whole race from the land. There is not a single instance when the Jews have not fully deserved the bitter fruit of the fury of their persecutors.

"Their [Jew's] disease is a sort of moral gonorrhea known as Judaism and seems to be alas incurable. The results, as any good doctor will tell you, are invariably treacherous and unhealthy. If you are in doubt, take a look at any Jew-ridden country in Europe. If you need any further convincing, take a look at what's happening in America.

"It is my belief that nothing the Jew does in America is essential to its welfare. On the contrary, a great deal of what the American Jew does is in subversion of America's best interests." [Remember now, these words come from a Jew, analyzing Judaism's problems. They are not from an anti-Semite.]

The Jewish Agency is the most powerful international Jewish organization in the world. It unifies Jewish groups in every land, behind specific worldwide Jewish political objectives. It is the godfather of all other Jewish organizations.

From all the Jewish leaders, books and newspapers, we find the following conclusions:

1. Jews dream of a world domination and work for the realization of that dream.

2. Jews control the financial and economic life of the world; they have the power to instigate crises and unemployment, in order to ruin individuals and states and prepare revolution; they are born revolutionists and supply the leadership and execution of all great revolutions.

3. Jews are the creators, leaders, propagandists and money-purveyors of Marxism (socialism, communism, bolshevism).

4. Jews want all nationalities and religions to disappear, in order to bring forth the "world republic" which will deliver world control to them.

5. Jews, through their powerful means of propaganda (cinema, publishing houses, news agencies, organizations of all sorts), work for the choking of national, racial and religious sentiment, so as to bring down the civilization built by all peoples.

6. Jews control secret societies, which form provisional governments and turn all political and social upheavals to the profit of International Jewry.

7. Jews are not nationals, in whatever country they may be, but are essentially Jews, who cannot think like other citizens.

8. Jews are at the roots of most of our troubles, conflicts and revolts in the modern world; they gradually Judaize other peoples by the influence of their organizations, and work towards bringing them to believe, think and live as Jews.

All of these things are affirmed by Jewish leaders. They are not accusations of their enemies. In no other peoples in the world can be found so many identical, cynical and unanimous admissions. This destructive revolution is at our doors. The enemy is within our walls. The poison circulates within our national body.

While Christian Americans have been brainwashed by Jewish propaganda over alleged anti-Semitism, facts prove otherwise. There is very little anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union. Over a thousand Jews, who left Russia for economic reasons, have returned from Israel. One of them was quoted as saying: "The so-called Jewish problem does not exist in Russia. It was artificially created and formed for Zionist propaganda. Israel is a backward nation; she is a militaristic state, rife with inequality, racism, and immorality."

A repatriate from the Ukraine said: "We speak a different language; we think differently. Nazi Germany brought less misfortune to the Jews than has Zionism. I refused to read a false, anti-Soviet statement over the Voice of Israel Radio and lost my job because of it."

Another said: "In the Soviet Union we were regarded as human beings, in Israel they treat us like the worst slaves." (Again, Jews speaking about Jews.)

The tremendous influx of Jews into America has been for one purpose alone, to further their control over us and to ultimately bring us under the bondage of their one-world government. All you need to do to understand this is to read contemporary Jewish literature for the past 100 years. The Jewish author, Maurice Samuels, in his book "You Gentiles," page 154, says:

"A century of partial tolerance gave us Jews access to your world. In that period the great attempt was made, by advance guards of reconciliation, to bring our two worlds together. It was a century of failure. Our Jewish radicals are beginning to understand this. We Jews, we the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you will do will meet our needs and demands. We will forever destroy because we need a world of our own, a God-world, which it is not in your nature to build....Those of us who fail to understand that truth will always be found in alliance with your rebellious factions, until disillusionment comes. The wretched fate, which scattered us through your midst, has thrust this unwelcome role upon us."

In another place he says: "The Jewish radical will turn from your social movement; he will discover his mistake. He will discover that nothing can bridge the gulf between us." On page 144 of the chapter entitled "We, the Destroyers," he says:

"If anything, you must learn to dislike and fear the modern assimilated Jew more than you did the old Jew, for he is more dangerous to you. At least the old Jew kept apart from you, was easily recognized as an individual, as a bearer of the dreaded Jewish world-ideas; you were afraid of him and loathed him. But to a large extent, he was insulated. But as the Jew assimilates, acquires your language, cultivates certain intimacies, penetrates into your life and begins to handle your instruments, you are aware that his nature, once confined safely to his own life, now threatens yours."

I believe the reason the Zionists are carrying on an "anti-Soviet" campaign at the present time is that they are attempting to fool the Christian world into believing they are against the Soviets. Time and time again, our press states that the Zionists are our best friends in the Middle East and the "bulwark against Communism." This is a "smoke screen," which they have successfully used in the past. Not only does it blind us to the Communist nature of the Zionist beast, but it takes our minds off the millions of Christians who have been slaughtered by these people we are taught are God's Chosen.

Too many "brainwashed" Christians, such as Dr. Jerry Falwell, Dr. Jack Van Impe, Dr. David Webber and others, have used this in their defense of these anti-God people.

Van Impe, in his book, "Israel's Final Holocaust," has become one of their top apologists. According to him, they can do no wrong. (This is also a Falwell premise.) Van Impe begins Chapter Seven by stating: "The Jews have enriched all the nations in which they have settled--an inevitable fact, because of the promises made to Abraham in Genesis 12: 2." Does this mean that he is naive enough to believe that the black singer, Sammy Davis, Jr., is a descendant of Abraham? Does it mean that he accepts the 90% of modern Jewry, who are Khazars by descent, as descendants of righteous Abraham? Evidently! How ridiculous can a modern man become in his rationalizing?

If you will take time to read God's promise to Abraham in its context, you will find it does not mention the word Jew; in fact, the word did not even come into usage until 1200 years later. It does not even hint that such a people would be included in this blessing in the future. The "Chosen People" idea, as we have it today, is the product of the "fertile imagination of some fundamentalist mind." It has absolutely no basis in Scripture. When the Psalmist wrote in Psalm 135: 4 that God chose Israel for His "peculiar treasure," it had no reference whatsoever to a people we now call Jews.

Then Van Impe poses an absurd question: "Why are the Jews so maligned and hated, when they have been so productive and helpful? There can be only one explanation--the fulfillment of prophecy: 'And thou [Jews] shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee' (Deuteronomy 28: 37)." Well, the Jews have been productive, they have taken their "pound of flesh" for everything they have given to mankind.

There is little question that the Jew is hated worldwide. It is not because of his contributions to mankind, but because of his evil, double-crossing, treacherous actions toward God, the nations which have succored him and everything which is "lovely and of a good report."

He has been kicked out of every nation in Europe, not because he is God's People and Satan hates him, as Van Impe would have us believe, but because of his evil ways. Look at our own history. Who have been the traitors against America in the past 100 years? Close to 100% have been Jews. You know the names of many of them. The Rosenbergs, the Sobells, the Lattimores. For over fifty years, our State Department has been riddled with Zionist-Communist collaborators. A large majority of the infamous Weatherman Underground Movement in the United States--a movement dedicated to the destruction of our Constitutional Republic--has been Jewish. They have attacked our police; subverted our college youth; planted bombs and thumbed their noses at Americans in general. Most of these have been Jewish, from wealthy and prominent New York families.

Kathy Boudin, recently in the news, has said that she "hated her white skin and the privileged life-style she lived before she became a subversive." Her father, Leonard Boudin, was a Jewish lawyer, noted for his defense of many charged with communist activity. Her home was called "a salon for leftist intellectuals." On more than one occasion, Mr. Boudin defended his daughter's terrorist acts and he is reputed to have secretly funded some of her subversive activities.

This was the group which coined such phrases as: "All white babies are pigs!" They were the words of sick, powerful, crazy people, bent on murder and mayhem. Then there was Judith Clarke; David Gilbert; Eva Rosahan; Eleanor Raskin; Jerry Rubin; Bernadine Dohrn; Jane Alpert; Mark Rudd, all Jews and all dedicated to the destruction of America and white Christian civilization. The Weatherman Manifesto stated: "We will loot and burn and destroy, we are the incubation of your mother's nightmares." Bernadine Dohrn was involved in 25 bombings; yet when she was picked up by the police, the Jewish Judge, Fred G. Suria, Jr., put her on three years' probation, saying: "She has suffered enough through her years of hiding, separated from her family and friends." When she was sentenced, she defiantly told the judge that she was still "committed to the struggle ahead!"

A new book, "Growing Up Underground," has recently been released and promoted by the Jewish William Morrow Publishers. It was written by the Jewess Jane Alpert and paints a sympathetic picture of the treasonous Weatherman Organization. Alpert surfaced from the underground in 1974 and, despite the fact that she confessed to conspiracy in the bombing of eight New York government and corporate buildings, she was given three years in prison, but only served one. She revealed that her wealthy Jewish parents had financed her underground activities. On and on we could go.

The Apostle Paul put his finger squarely on the problem in I Thessalonians 2: 15, when he says of the Jews: "Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us [the Christian church]; and THEY PLEASE NOT GOD, AND ARE CONTRARY TO ALL MEN." (Emphasis added.)

I could go into Van Impe's virulent tirade against Germany and show you how he has twisted facts for the benefit of the Zionists. He has apparently swallowed "hook, line and sinker" the Jewish "Holocaust" story, all proof to the contrary. What I am showing from his book is for the purpose of getting you to study deeper into how the Jews use propaganda and fool some "pretty good men."

On page 81 of "Israel's Final Holocaust" he states: "Hundreds of thousands of Jews were fleeing before the advancing German Army....It is doubtful that any people ever suffered as did the Jews during World War II, when they were the special object of Hitler's hatred." Page 82: "When the German Army moved into Russia, mobile killing units were dispatched for the sole purpose of following the army and killing Jews. Within five months, these murder missions brought death to 500,000 Jews." (I would really like to know where he got those figures.)

Yet compare Van Impe's statements with this fact. Jewish population statistics for 1939 show that there were only 550,000 Jews living in Germany and, if "hundreds of thousands fled before the advancing German Army," where did they come from?

He goes on: "Auschwitz was equipped to execute 10,000 Jews per day and Treblink could destroy 25,000." But eyewitness accounts say there were only four crematory furnaces in Auschwitz, and each had a daily capacity of six bodies. This would mean that, working at full capacity, day and night, only 8,060 bodies could have been handled each year.

Something is drastically wrong in this man's figures. If he had taken time to do some research, he would have found that the World Almanac for 1939 showed the Jewish world population to be 15,688,259. Nine years later, after 6,000,000 Jews were supposed to have been murdered, the Jewish-run New York Times reported there were between 15,600,000 and 18,700,000 Jews in the world. Does Van Impe expect us to believe that the Jews reproduced this fast? You see, my brainwashed Christian friends, you make a fool out of yourself and a mockery of God, when you allow yourself to be fooled by Jewish propaganda. It has done a "hard sell" on a lot of good men like Falwell, Van Impe, and Webber.

Another preacher, who differs greatly, as far as doctrine is concerned, with the fundamentalist pro-Zionists, is "Israel first," pastor R. B. Thieme, Jr., of the large Beracheh Church in Houston, Texas. In his book, "Anti-Semitism," page 12, he writes: "The Jewish race is the youngest, yet the greatest of all races in history. God formed it for the specific purpose of being instruments for the development and dissemination of the Old Testament Canon." Yet in spite of what this "learned" man says, and he is well educated, make no mistake about that, the fact remains there are only four races on this earth--white, black, yellow and red. There is no more a "Jewish race," than there is a "Christian race," or a "Buddhist race." The Jews belong to the same race as the Arabs, the ancient Assyrians, Edomites, Amorites, Syrians, etc., at least a small percentage of them do. The greater portion had nothing in common with Palestine or Abraham.

He goes on: "Abram (renamed Abraham by God in Genesis 17: 5) was circumcised at the age of 99, as an act of faith, and became the father of the Jewish race." This was about 1900 B.C. according to Bible accounts. Yet the Bible clearly shows that there were no people called Jews until about 742 B.C., where for the first time they show up in the Bible account in II Kings 16: 6. This was 1200 years after the time of Abraham. Anytime you hear a preacher state, "Abraham was a Jew," you know he is either "rather dense," or he is being "intellectually dishonest."

He goes on: "To countermand Satan's evil design against the promised new race, omniscient

God affixed a blessing and a cursing clause to the Abrahamic Covenant. The latter vouched for sustained divine provision, protection, and preservation of a remnant of the Jews, in every generation." He then quotes from a verse, which is very popular in fundamental circles: "I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee." This was the verse my pastor used on me, when I told him to check the Jewish record. "God has blessed America, because we have been kind to the Jews," he said. When I pointed out that the time of America's greatest debacle has come since we recognized the "bandit State of the Israeli" in 1948, he got mad and pronounced me an "apostate." If you will look closely at this promise, you will see that it indicates blessings only for Abraham; it does not even hint at his posterity.

Thieme goes on to say: "The Lord blessed Potiphar, the Egyptian, for Joseph's sake (Genesis 39: 5), but he judged Egypt for enslaving the Jews (Genesis 15: 13-14)." Here we can see intellectual dishonesty at work, since there were no people called Jews anywhere on earth at this time. Continuing with his false reasoning, he states: "God will bless all who bless the Jews and punish all who interfere with His plans and His People." (I would imagine this same kind of reasoning was in Dr. Falwell's mind, when he gave the "blanket approval" of all fundamentalists to the little "Hitler of the Israeli.") If both Thieme and Falwell had used the proper term "Israel" instead of "Jew," in their statements, I would have been compelled to say "Amen!"

Throughout his book, Thieme follows the false process of using the terms, "Jew, Hebrew, and Israelite," as interchangeable. They are not synonymous, they never have been and never will be.

On page 29: "Most of the opposition to the Jews (19th Century) has come from organized religion. This opposition was based on the claim (Luke 23: 23; Mark 15: 15; Matthew 27: 27; Acts 5: 30) that the Jews were responsible for crucifying Christ." This is only partially true! The real opposition to the Jews was the same as it is today. In every place where they have settled, they have brought along their un-Godly, immoral, crooked and treasonous practices. Check the history of every nation which has given shelter to the Jew. The story is always the same. Yet the Jew defenders never mention these reasons. He goes on to state: "They were confined to the limits of the ghetto," yet he fails to explain that the "ghetto" was not an European invention, but was straight out of the Talmud and was a device used to control Jewish people by their own religious authorities.

A few paragraphs later Thieme says: "There were utterly ridiculous and unfounded claims of blood libel; that is, the accusation that the Jews murdered Christian babies to obtain blood for the Passover ritual." This statement shows how unscholarly a good scholar can become, when he becomes involved with Jewish propaganda. These accusations, backed with prosecution and conviction, are laced throughout European history, and there have been cases of this heinous crime in the United States. It is a proven fact that Talmudism is Satan worship, and it has been known by knowledgeable persons that, down through the centuries, the Jews have been known to commit terrible pollutions at their secret gatherings.

Much of the success of Jews, in their dealings with Christians, comes through their use of magic. Elphias Levi, a person whom no one can accuse of anti-Semitism, asserts in his Dogme et Rituel de Haute Magie, 1961, Chapter 4, page 78: "The Jews, who believed most of all in the secrets of the 'Cabbala,' were in the Middle Ages almost exclusively the grand masters of magic." In Voltaire's work, "Henriade," he describes a revolting ceremony in which the devilish name was mentioned with the Eternal in the same breath. He said: "The priest of this temple is one of those Jews who are respected as world citizens." In a footnote he says: "It is universally customary that the Jews gave themselves up to magical actions."

Thieme continues by saying: "It was Christian mistreatment of the Jews which has caused the name of Jesus to become a stumbling block to the Jews." My friends, Jews have hated Jesus Christ ever since the day He called their religious leaders "hypocrites and poisonous snakes." (See Matthew 23: 13-35 for about as thorough a coverage of this subject as is possible.)

Speaking about the persecution Thieme mentions, why is it that he says nothing about the millions of Christians who have been tortured, imprisoned, and murdered by the Jewish Communists? The Jews have hated Christ since the time in John 8: 44, when He stated: "Ye are of your father the devil." It is no wonder that modern day Jewish Rabbis want the book of John taken out of the New Testament. If you had no other literature in the whole world, other than the Gospel of John, you would have no excuse for not knowing that the Jews are not God's people.

What makes you believe that a "child of Satan, the murderer," would hesitate in killing a Christian baby? It certainly doesn't stop the Jewish doctors who man most of our abortion clinics! Thieme is reaching desperately for the defense of a people who cannot be defended and is using the "big lie" technique he claims to abhor.

He even derides Martin Luther, the great Protestant Reformer of the 16th Century, by stating: "Martin Luther started out by defending the Jews." Then he began to learn about their treachery from firsthand experience and became their bitter enemy. Thieme claims that it was only when the Jews spurned Luther's offer (whatever that may have been) that he turned against them, "as he later turned against others who had disillusioned and betrayed him." He fails to state that all of Luther's statements concerning the Jews have been expunged from the modern Lutheran churches and seminaries.

Thieme, as wrong as he is concerning the Jews, still understands one important point which seems to be overlooked by a majority of fundamentalists. On page 39, he states: "Zionism is strictly man's efforts to usher in the Jewish Millennium." This is true! It is the aim to "help God" by creating a homeland into which all Jews, who wish, might be admitted. Thieme states: "The Bible neither condemns, condones, or encourages such an effort. However, Scripture clearly indicates that during the Tribulation [and here he switches names again and uses 'Israel'] Israel will be regathered in unbelief, a nation in its own right, and in a position to draw and sign legitimate treaties."

The efforts of Christians, to speed this heathen Zionism on its ungodly way, is a mere attempt of men to "speed up God's prophetic timetable." It is almost as though they believe God cannot handle things without their help.

Thieme's statement on page 45 is one of the best examples I have ever seen of how Zionist propaganda can twist the thinking of a brilliant man. Here he speaks of Britain's struggles with the Zionist terrorists in Palestine (of course he does not call them "terrorists"). "Handicapped by their consideration for the Arabs, British leaders were deaf to those voices [the pro-Zionist voices in Parliament] and threw caution to the winds. British armed might now became the Palestinian Jewish soldiers' most formidable enemy. THIS ACTION TURNED OUT TO BE A TRAGIC MISTAKE!" (Emphasis added.)

He goes on: "Historically Britain lost the struggle in Palestine over the precedence of greater problems in other parts of their far-flung empire, which began to crumble." NOTICE, VERY CAREFULLY, THIS STATEMENT WHICH FOLLOWS: "However, Britain's decline can be attributed to one fact only, THE NEVER-FAILING OUTWORKING OF THE PRINCIPLE STATED IN GENESIS 12: 3."

I am sure Thieme, as well educated as he is, recognizes this as a falsehood. Britain's decline came about for the same reason it is going on in the United States and the rest of the Anglo-Israel nations. Not because we have been unkind to the Jews, but because we have departed from the "faith of our fathers" and have broken their Covenant with our God. The only part the Jews have played in this has been their usual one, of adding to the decadence, which is designed to bring about their one-world government they so selfishly want for themselves.

On page 61, page after page of Jewish-supplied statistics concerning German atrocities against the Jews during World War II, he makes this rather ridiculous statement: "This myth [racial superiority], conjured up in the German minds their foremost place of power in Satan's domain--Germans as supreme masters with the world groveling at their feet." (This is the exact dream of the Jews whom he supports.)

In the London Jewish Chronicle, January 22, 1943, Berl Locker, speaking at a Zionist Conference, said: "We have the right to come to the world today and say--'Here is the Jewish problem. Settle it to our satisfaction, or there will be no rest for the world.'"

Vladmir Jabotinski, a radical Zionist leader at the 5th Congress of Polist Zionist Revisionists, was reported by the London Times, December 30, 1931, to have said: "The Jews will become the dynamite which will blow up the British Empire!" They were!

Goldwin Smith, a Jewish Professor of Modern History, at the University of Oxford, 1881, said: "We regard our race as superior to mankind, and look forward not to its ultimate union with other races, but to its triumph over them."

Rabbi Lewis Browne, in his book, "How Odd of God," says: "We Jews intend to remake the Gentiles--what the communists are now doing in Russia!"

In 1889, a document was published by Baron Julius de Rothschild. It was dated 1289 and was written by Chemor, Jewish Rabbi of Arles Province. He had written to the Grand Sanhedrin for advice concerning Jewish problems. He received an answer with six main points. Here is one of them: "Arrange for your sons to become advocates and lawyers and see that they always mix themselves with the affairs of State, in order that, by putting Christians under our yoke, you may DOMINATE THE WORLD AND BE AVENGED ON THEM." (Emphasis added.) Why is it that Thieme puts none of these statements in his book? Is he really interested in Christians knowing the truth?

On page 73, after a rather ranting dissertation, extolling the virtues of the Jews and damning anyone intelligent enough to recognize their danger to Christian civilization, he makes this statement: "There never was a Jewish plot to overthrow the duly established authorities in any nation; there is no International Jewish conspiracy now! The only genuine fact that exists is that the Jews are always under attack!" Now, whether he knows this or not, this statement is an outright lie and can be proved by the statement of many Jewish authorities.

If his statement is true, then how can he account for the fact that 95% of the leaders of the Communist Revolution in Russia were Jews? All you have to do is look at their names to see this. How does he account for the fact that it was two New York Jewish bankers, by the name of Schiff and Warburg, who donated the $20 million that made the Bolshevik Revolution a success? If his statement is true, then why do Jewish leaders brag about the part Jews played in the Revolution? In my 22-page pamphlet, "From the Horse's Mouth,"* I give many documented statements by Jewish leaders as to their part in Communism. They glory in it. Let me give you a few examples:

In the Zionist organ, The Maccabean, New York City, November 1905, this headline appeared: A JEWISH REVOLUTION!

The Jew, M. Hermalin, New York City 1917, said: "The Russian Revolution was made by Jews. We created secret societies and planned the reign of terror. The revolution succeeded by our convincing propaganda and our mass assassinations in order to form a government which was truly ours."

The American Hebrew, leading Jewish newspaper in the United States, August 10, 1920, said: "The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal was the creation of a new world order. What happened in Russia shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality over all the world."

Samuel Roth, a Jew of unusual bravery, warned his fellow Jews with these words: "We come to the nations pretending persecution, and we are the most deadly persecutors in all the wretched annals of mankind."

Is Pastor Thieme going to call me a "Liar" and say that I have made up all these statements? Or will he be honest enough to do some checking on his own and learn the truth? I rather doubt it!

While Thieme praises the Jews for their wonderful contributions to mankind, one of the leading Jewish novelists of the 19th Century, Conrad Alberti (Sittenfeld) wrote: "No one can dispute that Jewdom takes a leading part in the pollution and corruption of world relations. A characteristic of the Jew is a stubborn endeavor to produce values without work and this is an impossibility. It simply means that these values are artificially produced by swindling and corruption." (It takes one to know one!)

Thieme, like most Zionist supporters, is terribly inconsistent. He says on page 75: "The Jews are not the Christ-killers whom the anti-Semites would have them to be. Besides, only a rather small faction of Jews--Pharisees--plotted the death of Jesus." Could it be that he is calling Matthew a liar? For this very clear account says (27: 25): "Then answered ALL THE PEOPLE, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children." You choose whom you want to believe, this Jew lover, or God's own account.

On page 150 he contradicts himself again when he states, "Any attempt at internationalism is of the devil"; yet, as an educated man, he must know that the Jews are the most notorious internationalists in existence and that the core of their doctrine is one-world government, with them in control.

I cannot help but wonder about Jewish truthfulness, when I see Jews, who were supposed to have perished in the German camps, now drawing reparations from the German people; or a young Jewish woman, speaking of her experiences in a prison camp and being given enthusiastic responses by Christian audiences, who are too stupid to realize she is too young, by twenty years, to have gone through that experience. Then to see films, like The Bunker, Skokie, The Diary of Anne Franke and The Holocaust being crammed down the throats of Americans via television and the movies and being passed off as documentaries, when most of the material shown is pure fabrication, it makes one wonder. That is, until you realize that the Talmud gives the Jew the authority to lie to, and break his oath to, a Gentile, as long as he takes the Kol Nidre oath once each year. (This is an oath that absolves him of all lies told to a Gentile.)

If you would like documentary evidence of what I have written and would like some good written material covering it, I would suggest "The Overman Report," by Rev. Kenneth Goff and "The Iron Curtain Over America," by Col. John Beaty.*

The entire drive of Judaism, towards a Jewish controlled one-world government, can be summed up in the arrogant words of the International Jew, James Paul Warburg, as he testified concerning internationalism before a U.S. Senate Committee, February 17, 1950. He said: "We [America] shall have world government, whether we like it or not. The only question is whether world government will be achieved by conquest or consent."

So the battle rages and many Christians do not even know there is a war going on. They read those marvelous words of Ephesians 6: 12 and they come out: "For we wrestle not! Period!" Certainly, very few, in the fundamental world, realize that it is a war between the forces of Talmudic evil and that representing

Jesus Christ. As a result, when they see how anemic their efforts are, they become discouraged, because they do not realize they have been subsidizing their own enemy.

Too often the forces of Christianity have been neutralized by blind leaders, who refuse to see that the source of the evils they claim to hate and fight is the thing they are supporting. Seven hundred years before Christ came to earth, the Prophet Isaiah predicted such men, when he said (56: 10-11): "His watchmen are blind: [they refuse to see]: they are all ignorant [they refuse to accept what God's Word says, if it contradicts their pet theory], they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark [a watchdog, who refuses to bark at the approach of danger, is worse than useless]; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain." (They are willing to do anything to remain in Jewish favor.) What a terrible indictment for our spiritual leaders.

There are many examples of these men "selling out" for financial benefits. I can think of none so blatant as that of Billy Graham and Oral Roberts. By contrast, during the early days of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, its President, Dr. James Gray, was a great Christian scholar who did not believe the Chosen People theory. He came in for a lot of criticism from the Christian world and some persecution from the Jews. His life was threatened on a number of occasions but he would not give in. Moody's was always in financial difficulties in those days. By contrast, on his death, every president since then has been pro-Jewish and the Institute has never lacked for financial assistance. This should tell us something.

Do you honestly believe that men like Falwell, Van Impe, and Graham would continue very long on national television, if they came out with an anti-Jewish stance? You know the answer to that!

In the Twentieth Century, we have seen two generations of Western politicians who have been in quest of Jewish favors, often to the detriment of their own countries. The result has been two world wars, found not "to end all wars," not "to protect Democracy," as our fighting men were so glibly told, but to increase the power and wealth of the International Jewish gangsters; set up the "bandit State of the Israelis" in Palestine and bring about the final Jewish takeover of the world.

It was during the Babylonian captivity that the teachings later incorporated in the Talmud began to supercede the teachings of the Mosaic Law. The Jewish religious leaders, led by the Scribes and the Levites, began to form a new religion for this ancient people. It was a formal denial of the God of their forefathers and of His Law. The following is advice from a highly respected Rabbi: "My son, give heed to the words of the scribes, rather than to the words of the Law."

In the Sanhedrin X, 3, f.88b, you can read: "He who transgresses the words of the scribes sins more gravely than the transgressors of the Law." In the book, "Mizbeach," we find the following opinion: "There is nothing superior to the Holy Talmud."

Christians from the first century have condemned this Satanic book, and it was proscribed by both the Church and the State on many occasions. Toward the end of the 16th Century, many Christian scholars began to study the Talmud, and the Jews, fearing for themselves, began to delete parts which were hostile to Christians. Thus the Talmud, which was published in Basel, Switzerland, in 1578, was mutilated in many parts. The Rabbis however, had the unexpunged books from which they teach.

The teachings of the Talmud are reflected in the writings of many Jewish authors. Listen to the words of the eminent Rabbi Solomon Goldman: "God is absorbed in the nationalism of Israel. He becomes the national ethos (character)...He creates the world in the Hebrew language. He is our national God."

In Maurice Samuels' book, "You Gentiles," he states: "We and God grew up together....We have a national God....We believe that God is a Jew, that there is no English or American God."

Dr. Kastein, another Jewish historian, says: "It was not true that God willed these people [Jews] and their meaning. It was this people who willed God and this meaning." In other words: "The Jews created God." If this is the case, then He is not the Deity who Christians worship. Yet these same people obligingly tell us that 75% of their people are either agnostics or outright atheists.

When the Jews lost their language (Hebrew) in Babylon, they spoke Aramic, so a translation of the Scriptures became necessary. This was undertaken, according to Jewish tradition, by 72 Jewish scholars in Alexandria, Egypt, between 275 and 150 B.C.

"The single largest body of Jews in the world at that time lived in Alexandria. Here Greek was the common language. So the Talmud, which had its beginnings in the heathen culture and beliefs of Babylon, was first translated into a distortion and twisting of words, changes of meaning and frequent substitution of general terms and ideas from those which were purely local or natural," according to Dr. Kastein.

When John Hyrcanus, king and high priest in Judea during the brief revival of Judaism, prior to Christ's first Advent, attacked the Idumeans and, at sword's point, forced them to be circumcised and accept Judaism, many of the descendants of Esau became Jews.

During this period, two political parties rose to power in Judea. The more moderate of these was the Sadducees, who supported the monarchy. The Pharisees, who were heirs of the Levites, controlled the thinking of most of the Jews. They formed the most numerous and powerful political party at the time of Christ and numbered among their adherents the High Priest Caiaphas and the most powerful Jewish lawyers.

Against those who insisted that the Mosaic laws were not capable of change, the Pharisees struck with deadly enmity. "We are the keepers of the oral law, directly imparted from Moses," they said. Christ said of them: "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat" (Matthew 23: 2). They claimed to possess the secrets of God and caused the mystic awe, in which so many generations of Jews have held the elders. This awe has had the power to frighten even the most enlightened on the outer fringes of Jewry.

Strangers to Jewry, including most of our fundamental scholars who back them as the Chosen People, are usually mystified at how the ruling sect of Jewry has been able to control Jewish communities scattered around the world. Yet at the time of Christ, these rulers were so strong they intimidated the Roman governor of Judea. In Mark 15: 15 we read: "So Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas [a murderer] unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified." Luke 23: 23 puts it a bit more clearly: "And they [Jews] were instant with loud voices, requiring that he [Jesus] might be crucified. And the voices of them [the Jews], and of the chief priests prevailed." (This should blow to pieces the contention of the fundamental apologists for the Jews, who say the Jewish people were not in favor of Christ's death.)

Although the Roman governor knew he was dealing with an innocent man, and even though he had been warned by his wife as to the consequences of condemning an innocent man, he gave in to Jewish pressure and had the Son of God executed. (There is some evidence that Caiaphas had become aware of some privileged information, that linked Pilate with a plot to assassinate the Emperor, and Caiaphas held this over his head as blackmail.)

The Jews had been led to believe that their Messiah would be a militant, avenging leader, who would destroy all the Jewish enemies and rule over them with a "rod of iron." The idea of a man, who would teach "love your enemies" and "turn the other cheek," was too much for their "eye for an eye, and tooth for a tooth" souls, so soaked in the virulent hatred of the Talmud, to accept. So they murdered the Son of God. (Yes, the proper word to use here is MURDERED!)

To understand this Jewish hatred for all things which are Christian, it is necessary to look into the Talmudic teachings. It teaches that "The life of a Goi and all his physical powers belong to a Jew." It is an axiom of the Rabbis that a Jew may take anything that belongs to a Christian for any reason whatsoever, even by fraud; nor can such be called robbery, since it is merely taking what belongs to him.

If a Jew goes to collect money from a "Goi" and he pays too much, the Jew may keep the difference. In the CHOSCHEN HAM, (266, 1), it says: "A Jew may keep anything he finds which belongs to the Akum [Christian], for it is written, 'Return to thy brethren what is lost' (Deuteronomy 22: 3). He, who returns lost property to a Christian, sins against the Law by increasing the power of the transgressors of the Law."

In BABHA KAMA (9113b), it says: "It is permitted to deceive a Goi."

In IORE DEA (157, Hagah), it says: "If a Jew is able to deceive them [Christians] by pretending he is a worshiper, he may do so."

In the BABHA KAMA (113b), it says: "The name of a Jew is not profaned when, for example, a Jew lies to a Goi...as long as the Goi does not know he is lying."

In IORE DEA (158,1), it says: "The Akum [Christians] who are not our enemies must not be killed directly, nevertheless they must not be saved from danger of death. For example, if you see one of them fall into the sea, do not pull him out unless he promises to give you money."

CHOSCHEN HAMMISCHPAT (388, 10) says: "There are those who say that a traitor is to be put to death only when it is impossible to get rid of him by mutilating him, that is, cutting out of his tongue, or his eyes, but if this can be done he must not be killed." (You wonder why the Israelis are so brutal in their dealings with the Arabs?)

In the SANHEDRIN (59a), it says: "Rabbi Jochanan says: A Goi who pries into the Law is guilty of death." What this means is that those of you who read these words can be condemned to death by a Jew.

In the ABHODAH ZARAH (926b, Tosephoth), it says: "Even the best of the Goyim should be killed."

At the time of Christ, most of the followers of Jesus were non-Jews, although we have been told otherwise. Most of them, that we know about through the Scriptures, were Benjamites from the Northern Area of Palestine, known as Galilee; they were held in the utmost of contempt by the Jews and were called "Samaritans." The testimony of the Holy Spirit in Acts 1: 11 shows us that these people were Galileans. The majority of these people, who were called "The Way," later to become known as "Christians," were gathered on the Mount of Olives, to see their Lord return to heaven. They were addressed as "Ye men of Galilee." While these words should have a special significance to us, I have never heard a Baptist preacher attempt to explain them.

By rejecting Jesus as their Messiah, the Jews bequeathed to all future generations a tormenting doubt, plus their own condemnation as found in Matthew 27: 24-25. Today, these same people, or those who say they are Jews, are trying desperately to prove to the Christian world that they had no part in the murder of our Lord.

In spite of the screams of innocence from these people, the name of Jesus may not be mentioned in the home of a pious Jew, except in a curse, while Christ and His followers are cursed on a daily basis in regular prayers. (Ask your pastor to explain this for you!)

If today's Zionists are the Jews of Jesus' time (and this claim is almost universally accepted in our churches), then the party which condemned Jesus in Palestine in 33 A.D. is the same one which rules in Jerusalem today. The full weight of Christ's condemnation fell on these fellows. In John 8: 44, he called them "children of Satan." In Matthew 23: 31-35, He accused them of being guilty for all the innocent blood which had been shed on earth from the time of Abel to the dispersion in II Chronicles. It is no wonder the Pharisees and their modern day relatives hate Him so! Yet isn't it strange that the very things which Jesus singled out for attack are what today's Zionists claim are identifying features of Jews, Jewishness, and Judaism?

Jesus, the unschooled young man from Galilee, reached out His Divine finger, over 1900 years ago, to thrust aside all the mass of Jewish heresy and reduce the law and the prophets to two great commandments: "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and...thy neighbour as thyself. THERE IS NONE OTHER COMMANDMENT GREATER THAN THESE." (Mark 12: 30-31.) (Emphasis added.) This was a complete repudiation of Talmudic teaching which says that "non-Jews" are nothing but animals, fit only for Jewish use.

It is interesting to note how the politician, the Roman Governor Pontius Pilate, dealt with the Jews during Christ's trial. His wife's warning, his Roman training and his political background screamed: "Hands off!" He tried, as modern politicians often do, to "pass the buck" to Herod but that did not work. Then he tried to assuage the bloodthirstiness of the Jewish mob by having Christ whipped until His back was a mass of broken, bleeding flesh and muscle. When that did not work, he gave in.

He did the same thing our Anglo-Israel governments have done over and over when dealing with the Jews. Going all the way back to President Woodrow Wilson and his "right-hand man," Edward Mandel House, and continuing through the administration of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, and every administration since, including the present one, our government, in the name of good relations with the State of Israeli, has sanctioned murder, torture and robbery of countless thousands of Arab Christians, who have been forced out of their homes by illegal Israeli actions. Why have the officials of the greatest nation in the world bowed to the will of the tiny nation of the Israeli? Van Impe would have us believe this is the fulfilling of prophecy. I accuse them of cowardice. I say they have done this for Jewish praise, for Jewish money and for Jewish votes and the sanctimonious hypocrites, standing behind the pulpits of our land, have done the same thing.

In the years since Christ's resurrection, the western Christian civilization has left the rest of the world behind. Nowhere else has there been such remarkable progress. But our greatest progress was not in the fields of science and technology--great as they were--but in the moral and spiritual relationship with man and his Creator.

It has been the White Christian nations of the world who have liberated the slaves from the chains of Jewish dominated slavery. (Before the Civil War, records show that the Jews dominated the slave trade; they owned 90% of the slave ships, which brought Blacks from Africa to the New World.) It was white men of moral and spiritual courage, who first in England, then in the United States, liberated the slaves. Our peoples have done more for human rights than all the rest of the world combined. The Jews have done none of these things!

Now I realize that some of you are going to disagree with this statement, because the Jews have been very loud over their defense of Civil Rights in this country. Their American Civil Liberties Union is a good example of this hypocrisy. But more and more intelligent Black people are beginning to realize that the only reason Jews have cultivated Blacks is to use them as "cannon fodder," in the coming "race war" which the Jews hope will put them in command of this nation.

It is difficult for our fundamental preachers to admit that the Mohammedan people are closer to Christianity in their belief than the Jews. They have preached their "Judeo-Christian" concept for so long, that most of them are convinced of its authenticity. Yet the Mohammedans believe in the One-God, the Creator of the universe and of all mankind. They do not preach hatred for either Jew or Christian. While they do not believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God, they honor Him as a great prophet, like Moses. But the Jews spit on His name and call Him a "Mamser" (illegitimate bastard). They say He deserves to suffer eternity in hell for leading Jews astray.

One of the most valuable characteristics of the Jews has been their ability to hide their virulent hatred from Christians. While the Talmud refers to our Lord as "a fool; sorcerer; profane person; a dog; a child of lust, and many more epithets," they are careful to conceal their contempt behind a Talmudic facade. They are told, over and over again, to never allow their evil intentions to become known to the "Goyim."

During the latter part of the Seventeenth Century, when knowledge of the contents of the Talmud was becoming fairly widespread in the Christian world, it led to much embarrassment for world Jewry. This led to the following edict, quoted here from Douglas Reed's book, "The Controversy of Zion," page 90: "This is why we enjoin you, under pain of excommunication major, to print nothing in future editions, whether of the Mishna (oral laws), or the Gemara (the discussions of the rabbis concerning these oral laws), which relates whether for good or evil to the acts of Jesus the Nazarene, and to substitute instead a circle like this 'O,' which will warn the rabbis and schoolmasters to teach the young these passages only 'viva voce!' (by word of mouth). By means of this precaution, the savants (scholars) among the Nazarenes (Christians), will have no further pretext to attack us on this subject." This decree was passed by the Jewish Synod of Poland in 1631.

In the 20th Century, Christians have been led to believe that the "ghettos," built in the large cities of Europe, were put there by Gentiles as sort of "Jewish concentration camps." Nothing could be further from the truth. They were Talmudic inventions, used for the control of Jews. We see the first one in Jerusalem, in the book of Nehemiah, where he built a wall around Jerusalem and, when it was finished, drove all "non-Jews" outside. It was from this model that the modern "ghetto" took shape. It is to make minimum contact between Jew and Gentile, and keep the Jew from becoming contaminated, by brushing shoulders with the "goyim." The "Ghettos" have been established by pressure from the rabbis, whether in Alexandria, Warsaw, or New York City's East Side.

The word, "destroy," is the foundation of Talmudic teaching, not "defeat," nor "conquer," not "overcome," but "destroy." This is why Samuels, in his book, "You Gentiles," says: "We Jews, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers." This is why the Jew, Oscar Levy, would call his Jewish people the world's "seducers, executioners, destroyers and incendiaries." The Talmud specifically glorifies that part of the Old Testament, which states that the Jews must "ruin the people among whom they sojourn." This is spite of anything they may have done to help the Jews. Our pastors refuse to see this!

This is one thing Christians better learn about the Jews, if we are to survive as a free people. The Jews have an inbred hatred for Jesus Christ and His Church. It was Christ who exposed their true parentage in John 8: 44, when He told the Pharisaic leaders: "Ye are of your father the devil." I do not see how this could be made much clearer. If they are "children of Satan," most certainly they cannot be the Chosen People of God Almighty!

I wish there were time for us to go through the Middle Ages of History and watch as the Jews were first accepted and then driven from every nation in Europe. Not because they were God's Chosen People, hated of Satan, as Van Impe insists, but, as I have mentioned before, because of their "filthy life style," and their "crooked, and traitorous dealings" with every nation which accepted them.

This is the story of modern Jewry. They did the same thing in Russia, where the Tsar had given them special consideration. They have been and are doing the same thing in the United States and have almost succeeded in ruining England.

With a little honest research, you will find that all of America's wars have been instigated and financed by Jewish bankers, with enormous profits for them and a terrific bloodbath for us. The German war factories of 1914 and 1939 were, for the most part, Jewish owned. It was the machinations of these Jews which resulted in the deaths of countless thousands of "little Jews," who were caught in the schemes of the international planners. It was their influence, exerted on Churchill and Roosevelt, which kept World War II going for an extra two years and resulted in the deaths of hundreds of thousands of Israelites. It was their machinations that held Patton on the western border of Germany, so that Jewish-Communism could control Eastern Europe. The leader of every communist nation behind the Iron Curtain during this period was a Jew.

It was Jewish manipulation of Christian countries which led to the excesses of Nuremberg, where Germans were tried by Jewish courts and Jewish lawyers, before Jewish judges and were determined to be guilty before they went to trial. It was Jewish pressure which caused us to get involved in the United Nations and back the "bandit State of the Israeli" in Palestine. Yet our fundamental pastors say this is the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

Listen to Van Impe, as he agonizes over the plight of the Jews on page 99 of his book, "Israel's Final Holocaust." "Bruised and bleeding from centuries of suffering, the Jews came home to the land of their fathers." (He completely disregards proof, which shows that at least 90% of the Jews in Palestine are "non-Jews," whose ancestors never came close to Palestine. See Jewish author Arthur Koestler's book, "The Thirteenth Tribe.")

On page 102, he says: "It is clear God protected His ancient people." How could this be true when they were not of Israelite blood? It was American arms that protected the Israelis, not GOD! It is American financial help which is keeping this "enemy of mankind" alive today. Israeli authorities admit they would collapse within six months without American aid.

Then Van Impe asks a question on page 106, with which I am forced to agree. He says: "Are the Jews of the world about to be blamed for the economic ills of the world? Is a new wave of persecution about to begin?" I make this prediction: "It is inevitable, unless the Jews do a drastic about-face and renounce their aggressive policies."

If Begin is responsible for a war in the Middle East, and I believe this is a distinct possibility, and if this war becomes a "limited nuclear war" (Israelis do have atomic weapons, you know), if this war escalates into an "all-out nuclear war," what will happen? The surviving Jews better look for holes to hide in, whether they are guilty or not. The homeless, the starving, the nuclear sick, the mobs of survivors, will be roaming the countryside, looking for two things, food and loot, and someone to blame. The Jews who supported the Israelis, and the Christian dupes who supported them, will feel the full anger of a terribly enraged people.

Van Impe spreads more of his propaganda on page 161 when he states: "The land of Israel was the birthplace of the Jewish people. Here their spiritual, religious and national identity was formed....Here they wrote and gave the Bible to the world." (Facts from history and the Bible prove he is wrong.) He continues: "In the Second World War, the Jewish people in Palestine made a full contribution in the struggle of the freedom loving nations against the Nazi evil." (Why doesn't he tell us that 90% of the Communist leadership at this time was Jewish?)

Now if the Jews were such fighters for freedom, I wonder why my observations of them were so different. (I wonder if Van Impe ever spent any time in the front lines of combat.) During the process of World War II and Korea, I was a front line infantry officer and rubbed shoulders with many Jewish boys. My observation, backed by many other combat veterans, was that Jewish doctors all too often made out fake health reports, so that Jewish boys were kept out of the front lines and were assigned, instead, to the lucrative "rear echelons" of Quartermaster Corps, where they became rich in the "Black Market." I know, I was there! We often wondered in those days, if the Jews had been persecuted so badly in Germany, why didn't the Jewish boys want to fight. (I realize this is a generalization and that some Jewish boys did fight and die for this country. But in general, it was as I stated before.)

But now we come to something much more important. I have given you many facts, both from the Scripture, history and from statements made by Jews themselves. Many of you will still refuse to believe but, if my facts are true and the "mass of evidence says they are," then who are "true Israel?"

Here is one of the most important truths Christian people MUST learn if they expect to survive. With the true knowledge about the Jews must come a knowledge about who "true Israel" is. So in Part Two we will look at identifying marks which will prove this identity. In Revelation 2: 9, our risen and ascended Lord warned Christians from the church of Smyrna about "them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." When I first realized this, then I was on the "second mile" to understanding Israel Identity. There are over 200 scriptural marks which identify this "People of God," but they will not help you, unless you are willing to be "led by the Spirit of God, into all truth."

PART TWO

THE WHITE RACE: WHO ARE THEY?

"Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall.
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him, Lord of all!"

"Ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you." (Isaiah 51: 1-2.)

"Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully." (Jeremiah 48: 10.)

"Those Preachers preach lies in My Name. I never sent them! I have not commanded or spoken to them. They preach to you a false vision--a pagan lie--and the invention of their own hearts!" (Jeremiah 14: 14, Ferrar Fenton translation.)

Some of my readers will, no doubt, be disturbed by my use of the word "God," "Lord" and "Jesus Christ," instead of the proper Hebrew terms. I do this, not because I do not recognize these proper words, but because a majority of my readers have been "brainwashed" into accepting them and would not understand their proper use.

Since we are searching for the truth, let me explain the proper use of these words, so you will have a better understanding of what I am saying. The terms we use as proper words for the first two members of the Trinity are heathen words. Here is their proper usage:

ELOHIM - Not "Gawd," or "GOD."

YAHVAH - Not "Lord," which in the original Hebrew means "Baal."

YASHUA - Not "Jesus," which equals "Zeus," who was a Greek god.

MESSIAH - Not "Christos," or "Christ."

With this brief explanation, let us begin Part Two and examine the question, "Who are we?" Remember now, I am addressing this question exclusively to White Anglo-Saxon and related peoples.

In Joel 2: 17, we find these words: "Let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?"

One of the major problems in recent years among our youth has been that of identity. When you ask them why they are engaged in certain outlandish acts, they will invariably reply: "I am merely doing my own thing; I am trying to find myself; I want to know who I really am." This is a commendable attitude, if it can be channeled in the proper direction.

It has been my privilege, since retiring from the Army in 1964, to have traveled extensively as a lecturer and evangelist. I have spoken in 49 of our States and visited more than 3,000 communities. The more I have seen of America during this period, the more I have become convinced that the problems which are destroying us are not political at all. They are moral and spiritual, have been deliberately caused, and must be approached from a spiritual angle, if we hope to answer them. Our only answer will be to rediscover that sense of Divine guidance, with which our founding fathers were able to face the dangers and hardships of the

New World. They did this, with the assurance that God would prosper and protect their undertakings, because they had been ordained of God.

Today a spirit of fear prevails in this country and throughout all Christendom. We may not want to admit it but it is there. For the first time in our proud history, within a period of 30 years, we have been defeated in two wars, by countries smaller than most of our states. We were not forced into defeat by the lack of strength or incompetence of our military, but because our leaders did not have the will to win, while our people had been deliberately eroded, from without and within, with a deliberate attack against everything we have held as dear and sacred. Some wag has said: "When the ten o'clock news is good, America goes to sleep; when it is bad, she goes to pieces." This pretty well sums it up.

In Deuteronomy 28:15 & 25, where Moses makes his final speech to Israel, we read these words: "But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes...the Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them." What a terrible lesson was taught in both Korea and Vietnam, yet I am not sure we learned this lesson!

So today, we see the shameful spectacle, of the most powerful nation on earth, as she cringes before the threats of some Banana Republic. We hope this will change under the leadership of Mr. Reagan. However, when we look at his National Advisory Group, this is doubtful. In Proverbs 25: 5 we read: "Take away the wicked from before the king [President], and his throne [government] shall be established in righteousness." Oh how America needs righteous advisors.

In the past decades, we have been confused by the actions of our leaders and, whenever a president has taken a "pro-American" stance in recent years, he has been battered down by a Congress who says in essence: "No! The Zionists must be given first consideration!" It has become almost a dirty word to be "America First!"

I cannot help but feel that the secret of our problems lies in a statement made by an old Arkansas hillbilly who said: "It ain't so much from not knowin' that causes the trouble; as it is in knowin' so much that ain't so!" In other words, we have not been told the truth. However, when some man comes along and does tell the truth, the scream of "prejudice" is heard on every side.

An informed people is not necessarily an enlightened people, unless they have impartial accounts from both sides. Enlightenment cannot be debased to mean partial knowledge gained from censored material. You could spend your lifetime reading Life, Time, Newsweek and listening to the major broadcasting systems on TV, but you would not be enlightened, because you would be reading and seeing controlled news. All of these sources, as we have seen, are Jewish controlled; therefore are part of the Jewish transmission belt. Yet if you take a stand against this, you are called "prejudiced."

What does this actually mean? The word "pre" means "to go before." A person who is pre-judiced has beforehand made a "Judicial" (judgment) decision on a matter, without fully examining the evidence necessary to reach that decision. This is almost 100% true of those churchmen who oppose the Christian Identity truth. Only when a man, a church group, or a faction have refused to examine the evidence, can they be said to be "prejudiced."

While the Israel Identity truth may be distasteful, objectionable, fanatical, or what-have-you, I claim immunity from such words as "bigot," "prejudice," or "bias" on the grounds that not one bit of evidence I have presented against the Jews, or against the "bias" of fundamental Christianity, was written without ample, concise, detailed, thorough and faithful reference to the Bible and history, looking at both sides of the argument. Can this be said of our opponents? I think not!

It has been because Americans have not been shown both sides of the story, that they have been deliberately implanted with the feeling of fear. This fear will continue to grow until we awaken to the realization that God Almighty has a specific purpose for America, and that He brought this nation into existence for a specific purpose.

What will change the conditions of fear and chaos which now sap our strength? What will bring to the forefront White Christian leaders of spiritual strength, stature and righteousness, who will be joined by millions of people who are willing and ready to face every problem we may confront, with the knowledge that we will be victorious?

The answer will startle many of you, especially if you belong to that branch of Christianity which is called "fundamentalist." This will be because you have never been told the facts concerning America's origin and destiny. In fact, many of you have been taught that America is "Mystery Babylon" of the Bible and that we will be destroyed. No wonder we have such a defeatist attitude.

As a consequence of this and other false teachings, God's people have fallen woefully short of fulfilling our responsibilities, not only to God, but to our fellowmen. Because of this, we have been beset with all sorts of calamities.

Before we go further, let me say that I too am a "fundamentalist" in the literal meaning of the word. I believe in the inerrancy of the original Scriptures, the Virgin Birth of our Lord, His substitutionary death on the cross for the sins of all mankind, His literal resurrection and His Second Coming, to set up an earthly kingdom, where He will reign supreme as King of kings and Lord of lords. (I do not believe this will be a Jewish Kingdom!)

This was the very thing Jesus taught His disciples to pray for in Matthew 6: 10: "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in EARTH, as it is in heaven." I believe these things will come, just as surely as night follows day, and so I preach them to the best of my ability. I believe that God Almighty, Jehovah, YAHWEH, is Creator over all. I believe that Jesus Christ, YASHUAH, is His Son, born of a Virgin, without sin, very God and very man. I believe the Holy Spirit is an integral part of the Godhead Trinity and is God's emissary on this earth.

What I will say to you in this section may come as a shock to some of you. Not because it is "science fiction," not because it is designed to shock you, but because the Bible and world history prove it to be true and yet you have never heard it preached in your church.

If you are to accept the facts I will prove in this message--and many of you will go to any lengths not to believe them--it will be necessary for you to lay aside some "timeworn" ideas of men, which have been preached in our churches for many years. In most cases, these false conceptions were not preached with the idea of leading men astray, as much as they were preached through ignorance. Most of our preachers have been led astray in the seminaries.

Now don't get mad at what I am about to say. It will only raise your blood pressure, although some of you do look a little anemic anyway.

God may give you what you want and allow you to believe what you want to believe, but that does not mean it is true, or even "worth the powder to blow it to hell!" You may say: "God approves of the Jews, because He has given them all their wealth and success." Do you think He approved of Hitler, Stalin, Nero, Bloody Mary and Genghis Khan? God grants power to a lot of people He doesn't approve of, for His own unknown reasons.

Satan uses this fact to further his own aims. In II Thessalonians 2: 11, we read: "For this cause [because they receive not the truth, see verse 10] God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie." When men deliberately turn their backs on provable truth, for any reason, their lies become delusions to them. (According to the dictionary, a "delusion" is "something that is falsely believed or propagated." Boy oh boy, is this true when it comes to their ideas concerning the Jews.) Man wants to believe something which is not so; he rejects something that is so, and upon this deliberate action, God allows him what he wants and he believes a LIE!

In Dr. Peter Ruckman's book, "Mark of the Beast," he says on page 45: "Unable to burn the A.V. (Authorized Version) openly since 1700, Rome changed armor and destroyed it [the Bible] one page at a time, by using seminaries (Fundamental and Liberal alike), and convincing the professors that the Vatican manuscripts were the authoritative source of revelation." But he doesn't go far enough. Who was behind the apostasy in the Roman Church?

For the answer to this, we will go to Father Maurice Pinay's monumental work, "The Plot Against the Church." He has an entire Chapter (24) on "Jewish Infiltration of the Clergy." On page 465 he says: "The weapon preferred by the (Jewish) Fifth Column was to bring young Christians, descended from Jews, into the ranks of the clergy, who secretly paid homage to Judaism. After ordination, these priests were then to rise in the hierarchy of the Church (Roman Catholic) and be in the worldly orders or in the holy orders--in order to utilize their positions to harm the church." (Don't think this didn't happen in Protestantism either!)

In the early 1930's an order went out from Communist headquarters in the United States, saying in effect to young Communists: "If you really want to help the cause, get into the churches; attend the seminaries and become preachers and priests. Then you can work from within." They did this most effectively and many of these Fifth Columnists were Jews. The most effective work in Protestantism was done through a man named Dr. Harry F. Ward, who was head of the Union Theological Seminary in New York City. There were more pro-Communist ministers who went into churches (mostly from the National Council of Churches) from this seminary, than from any other source.

A 13th Century Jewish document, which fell into the hands of French authorities in the 18th Century, stated to the Jews of France: "You say your synagogues have been destroyed. Let your sons become priests and abbots, so they can destroy the Christian Church from within."

The learned Jewish historian, Abram Leon Sachan, one of the directors of the Hilel de la B'nai B'rith Foundation, a Jewish community leader and later president of Brandeis University, wrote a book, "History of the Jews," in which he went into detail about how the conversion of hundreds of thousands of Jews to Christianity in Spain, after 1391, resulted in: "Whole Jewish communities confessed Christianity. The majority eagerly utilized their new status. Hundreds of thousands entered professions hitherto forbidden them. They obtained important state offices and even penetrated the Church [Roman Catholic], at its highest levels. Their power increased along with their wealth and many were accepted into the oldest families of Spanish nobility. The converted Jews practically ruled Spain (notice carefully now) WHILE THEIR SECRET ADHERENCE TO JUDAISM DESTROYED THE CHRISTIAN FAITH....While the masses of Spanish people observed, with growing bitterness, the success of these new Christians, the clergy lied about their unfaithfulness and lack of honesty....Tens of thousands of these new Christians went to church as usual, murmured their prayers, carried out the rites and observed the customs. But in spirit, they were still Jews."

At least seven of the head officials in the Roman Catholic Church in Spain were Jews in the 14th Century and, in 1330, a Jew, Cardinal Pierleoni, actually became Pope. He was known as Anachlet II.

The Jewish historian, Joseph Kastein, makes this contemptuous remark about christianized Jews: "There are three ways you can waste water: (1) To baptize a Jew; (2) Let it run into the sea; (3) Mix it with wine." Don't kid yourself. This infiltration still continues in the 20th Century. Almost all the big fundamentalist seminaries have had, or now have, Jewish professors, usually in Old Testament, or Hebrew studies. How many of them do you suppose might be Fifth Columnists? The results show in the Jewish propaganda preached in our pulpits.

Many fundamental Bible scholars have rejected what I am about to tell you, because they are not honest enough to admit they have been wrong for so many years. (I can assure you, from bitter experience, it is not easy to admit you have been wrong for twenty years.)

The whole problem with these fellows seems to be: "If I find something in the Bible I don't like, how can I get around it?" When they come across the 8th Chapter of John's Gospel, where Jesus says to the Jews, "Ye are of your father the devil," they try and explain it away by saying: "He was talking about unsaved people in general." When Christ told the Jews in John 10: 26, "But ye believe not, BECAUSE YE ARE NOT OF MY SHEEP," they say "He meant they were unsaved!" HOGWASH! I recall an old preacher who used to say: "When will men stop going through the cafeteria of God's Word, with their little trays, picking out only what they want to believe?"

Yet in spite of what Christ taught, most of our fundamentalist preachers scoff at the idea of an earthly kingdom and tell their people they are to prepare themselves for heaven. As one lady told me: "I don't have to worry about the Communists, you know, because I'm not of this world."

In the face of a lot of tremendous opposition, from men who should know better, I do not ask you to believe me. In fact, my task is not to persuade you that I am right. It is to give you the facts--the Holy Spirit must do the persuading. I'll give you the facts, then it will be between you and God what you do about them.

I challenge you, if you really want to know the truth. First, listen to the facts I present from the Scripture and history; please don't reject them out of hand, just because they differ from what you have been taught. (Remember, that some day God will hold you accountable for what you have learned in this message.) I encourage you to take what I say, put it under the powerful magnifying glass of the Word, and, when you find I told you the truth, then have "guts" enough to do something about it.

This section is a message about God's earthly Kingdom and your part in it. It is a message about the MESSIAH, who will be the salvation of America.

The task of spreading the truth is not easy. If you have the courage to proclaim it, you will lose many of your so-called Christian friends, who have not matured enough to accept the "meat of the Word." They are still "baby Christians." Most of these will not even be honest enough to check out the facts. They will prefer to believe whatever their preacher tells them, but what will happen if your preacher is like mine and refuses to even listen to the facts? That is being dishonest and unworthy of a man who calls himself God's servant.

Truth in action is a dynamic force. Jesus Christ once said: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8: 32). But truth often cannot get off "dead center" unless some worthy apostle of truth gives it a push to overcome its inertia. Without that initial push, truth will often "die aborning."

On the other hand, truth is often blacked out by repeated contradictions and conflicting untruths. If lies are repeated over enough, even intelligent people will often believe them. This is the sobering testimony of history.

Whether wittingly or unwittingly, many of history's foremost characters have misrepresented truth. As recently as 1492, the foremost scientists of the world believed that the world was flat. When Christopher Columbus proved otherwise, he suffered under their hostility. Many men and women have suffered in support of the truth, because it did not dovetail with what the majority wanted to believe. This happened to our Lord, when He came in contact with the Jewish authorities and their traditions. We don't like anyone messing with our "sacred cows."

Now you can fool a bunch of nitwits, trying to get fundamentalist "Jew bait" off their "trotline," but this doesn't change the truth. God knows what He spoke, and why He spoke it, and just because some fallible men come along and say, "That isn't really what He means; the Jews are the Chosen People, you know," that doesn't change the truth. If the fundamentalists want to give honor to the God-hating Jews, that doesn't change the truth one little bit "which says they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan" (Revelation 2: 9).

The first interpreter of the Bible is the Author Himself and His method is to compare "Scripture with Scripture." So that is what we are going to do! We are going to lean very heavily on "What saith the Scripture?" Not on what Jack Van Impe says, not on what Webber or Falwell believe, but "What does the Bible teach?"

Most of the preachers, who refuse to accept what the Bible says about the Jews, are moving through the Bible so rapidly, looking for verses to prove their point, you have to corral them every once in a while, so the truth has time to penetrate their thick skulls. They need to realize that two opposite theories cannot both be right and that, when Jesus said to the Jews, "Ye are of your father the devil," He could not mean they were God's people at the same time. By a like token, when the Bible differentiates so clearly between Judah and Israel, who is mere man to come along and say: "They both mean the Jews"? He has no such right, even if he has a D.D. tacked on behind his name.

This country, which was founded on the Christian faith, must have a revival of that faith, if we are to survive as a free nation. The deterioration and disintegration of America will be accelerated in direct ratio as to how we receive the truth. Truth either exists, or it does not. There are no degrees of truth--to be "half-true" is as incredible as to be "half-honest," or "half-loyal." We just have not been told the "whole truth" in our churches. Many pastors who have been faithful in "preaching the full counsel of the Word," in regard to salvation and righteous living, have fallen woefully short when it comes to telling their people the truth, not only about their own identity, but the identity of the Jews. For this they will have to answer to God; I am not their judge!

I hope you, my reader, will be honest enough to accept the truth; not what Jack Mohr tells you, but what the Word of God says, this is what is important. All I am doing in this message is following the admonition of Isaiah 58: 1: "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgressions."

This is not some "spur of the moment" message. It was not inspired by what I read somewhere, or a message I heard on tape, radio or in person. It came after hundreds of hours of prayerful study, and the reading of thousands of pages of reference materials, both in the Bible and history. It came after a lot of soul-searching. Unfortunately, the preaching of this truth has made me unpopular with many people who used to welcome me into their churches. So be it! My job is to preach the Word, not strive for a popularity contest.

I believe the greatest part of our conservative and fundamental preachers and scholars have been remiss, often to the point of criminal neglect, in their refusal to acknowledge what the Bible teaches about America. They will tell you: "America is not mentioned in the Bible." That is true. You will not find the words, "United States" or "America," anywhere in the Bible, but she is there, just as clearly as if these familiar words were used. We shall see!

Without the shadow of a reasonable doubt, America and the British Commonwealth of Nations, plus other related peoples, have been called, according to God's immutable purpose, to fulfill a very special place in His plans for mankind. When enough of our Israel people recognize us, we will see the greatest revival which has ever swept over Christendom and a revival of our White, Christian countries. We will see the literal fulfillment of the promise made to King Solomon over twenty-nine centuries ago. Many of you know it by heart, and we hypocritically quote it in our Christian churches, over and over, without really believing it:

"If my people, which are called by my name [the Christian nations of the world are the only people known by the name of the Christos; certainly the Jews are not], shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will FORGIVE THEIR SIN, AND WILL HEAL THEIR LAND." (II Chronicles 7: 14.)

Do you want to see America healed? Do you want to see her returned to the greatness she once had? There is your answer, my Christian friend. We have been so busy getting people "saved" (and that is our first priority) that we have forgotten the need for National Salvation, and we are paying for our neglect.

Once the White people in our Christian nations understand and accept God's plans for us; when Christian people realize they are part of this plan; when they become aware that they have been especially chosen to be "light-bearers" for God; then, and only then, will we regain the moral and spiritual strength which made us great in the first place.

The Bible clearly states that when we accept responsibility and come out with the truth concerning our identity, then we will find the answer to the problems which are killing us and: "In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee." (Isaiah 54: 14.)

National righteousness is a way of life which is based on obedience to the commandments of the Lord God. Once you have read this message, there will be no excuse for your disobedience. You will not even be able to say: "But my pastor told me differently." For you will have the Word of God, as your infallible guide.

I can predict this with certainty. If America fails to heed God's message, she will be driven to her knees, and the righteous will suffer along with the wicked, as they always do. To those of you who dare use the name of Jesus Christ, and have accepted Him as the Lord and Messiah of your life, one day you will be forced to stand in embarrassed silence before Him and answer for your neglect: "For we MUST all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the TERROR of the Lord, we PERSUADE men." (Emphasis added.) (II Corinthians 5: 10-11.)

While I do not profess to be a great scholar, having never learned to read either Greek, Hebrew or Aramic, as some do, I challenge you to study God's Word. Place it beside the historical record and, when the truth finally dawns on you, then have the courage to accept it and publish it abroad, even though it contradicts everything you once believed. I am not calling you to a new religion, I am merely saying: "Be true to the faith once delivered unto the saints."

In Malachi 4: 5-6, we have a record of Elijah's return before that "great and terrible day of the Lord." The significance of Elijah's message with that day is that God's people (not the anti-God Jews) will be called on to repent and restore the righteous administration of the Law of the Lord to this earth. This was to be accomplished when our people finally realized who they were. There was to be a "purging" time, when the rebels would be "weeded out" from among God's people:

"I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant [not Palestine]: and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me....And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake." (Ezekiel 20: 37-38 & 44.)

Now it is easy to predict what some of you are thinking. Remember, not so long ago, I "stood in your moccasins." You have been conditioned to believe that this verse was speaking about the Jews. It was not!

Let us analyze this statement, by asking a question: "Is there really a Chosen People?" The Bible says there is and it is very careful to accurately point them out. The textbook we will use in our study is the oldest racial document in the human race, a volume composed of 66 books, which we call the Holy Bible. Of necessity, there will be some overlap with Part One. Don't let this bother you!

In presenting this marvelous Book, it is not required that you approach it with some theory concerning its Divine inspiration. Inspiration is not some idea we bring to the Bible which gives it supernatural standing. Inspiration is what we fetch away from the Bible, when we finally realize and accept its Divine essence.

You cannot know if anything is inspired until it inspires you. As a result, there are millions of Christians who read the Book and say they believe in its inspiration, who take away from it only those ideas which coincide with what they have been taught. When the Bible teaches something which conflicts with their belief, they will go to any lengths to prove they are right, even if it means twisting and warping the meaning of God's WORD. (Of course there is a terrible curse pronounced against such as do this--Revelation 22: 18-19.)

I believe the Bible labors under the disadvantage of being considered a religious book, but, when you go into the Bible, you will go far before you find anything that smacks of religion. The Bible begins with Geology, Astronomy, Meteorology, Biology, Anthropology, and Psychology. All the materials of the physical and mental sciences, the concepts of time, space and motion, of the creative method and purpose, are found in its opening passages.

God is the Central Figure of the Bible, but God is not an ecclesiastical figure. He is not a religious figure. The creating and sustaining God of the Bible and history appears as the sole complete personality in the Universe. He is the One-Complete-Moral-Being. He has eternal wisdom and upholds all things by the power of His Spirit. We find this explained in Colossians 1: 16-17: "By him [Jesus Christ] were all things created...whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him and for him. And he is before all things, and by Him ALL THINGS CONSIST." (Emphasis added.)

In the Greek, the phrase, "all things consist," means "held together." Isn't it wonderful to know that, in this chaotic old world of ours, all things are held together by the Power of our Savior?

Religion does not appear in the Bible until man's unnatural and sinful departure from God's law. Religion appeared as an emergency measure, a rescue force, if you will, brought into being because of abnormal human breakdown. When it has fulfilled its place, it will disappear. What a shock that is going to be to some people who believe that only they have the "real thing." The Apostle John wrote about this in Revelation 21: 22, telling of the day in the New Jerusalem, when there will be no place of worship: "For the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb [Jesus] are the temple of it."

There is a great deal of careless talk whenever people begin to discuss race. The Gentile loves to boast of his superiority over the Jew; the Jew over all people; Black over White; White over Black. But race is not the consideration in this message.

We Americans are prone to think of ourselves as a relatively young people, when in reality we are very old, but the true effect of knowing who we are should not feed our vanity. It should not rouse our boastfulness; it will not make us want to "Lord it over everyone else." Instead, it should rouse a sense of great awe in our hearts, as we see the tremendous responsibilities which God has placed on the shoulders of White people.

Many people are afraid to mention race, especially if they are members of the White race. Jewish propaganda has made this a term synonymous with "prejudice." While it is not considered wrong for a Black person to believe that "Black is beautiful," it is a sin for a White person to feel pride in his race. Before we go any further, let us lay down a "ground rule." As "long as pride of race leads to boastfulness and contempt for others, it is a false pride and cannot be condoned."

We are not going to discuss nationalities, since they are largely artificial, but you will soon find that race is a basic, natural fact. Take the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples as an example. (This includes Americans, Englishmen, Canadians, Australians, many from South Africa, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Holland, Germany, Austria, Poland and other related White peoples.) They speak many different languages and have different cultures but, when you touch their basic, sensitive central nerve, you will find they all respond in a similar manner. They advocate reverence for God, are in favor of progress, believe in the work ethic, and an orderly social life, based on love of God and His laws. Their ideals concerning freedom are essentially the same.

A good example can be found in the United States and Canada. They are made up basically of English, German, Scandinavian and French speaking White people. They are divided by an invisible barrier that crosses over 3,000 miles of mountains and prairies; yet they are essentially the same and could become one great Christian country with a minimum of difficulty.

Race is an insistent fact in Bible history, since the Bible is not the story of many people, but revolves around one particular people. It was written about a distinctive family group, which had been chosen by God, from all others, for a very distinctive purpose. The Bible does not deal with dead races and dead civilizations but is contemporary history. In dealing with this one race, it flows through history like a mighty stream, touching three continents and blessing many nations.

The Bible explains what God has done and why He did it. It then shows revelation in progress and gives us an exciting glimpse into the future. God never wrote a book, He writes in life. When He wants to show us "oakness," he does not present us with a treatise on botany; He makes an oak tree.

Our Lord Jesus Christ followed that same formula. He left no books written by His own hand. He left, instead, twelve fallible men, we call disciples, and one of those was a devil. These men became His "manuscripts." The Bible is devoted to the story of one nation, which became known as the "Chosen People." (This is the title the Jews are trying to usurp for themselves.)

It is at this point where Bible scholars depart from reality. They shrug their shoulders and say in essence: "So what! It's the Jews, everyone knows that and, besides, what difference does it make if you are saved?" But it does make a difference; a vast difference!

Most of you will be familiar with the Bible account of Abraham and how he was torn from his own country and people, by God's explicit orders. He was sent into a strange land, where he was to become, according to God's word, "A great nation, and a company of nations."

While Abram, who was soon to be called Abraham, was the father of many different nations, his racial line was to descend through his younger son, Isaac. In Genesis 21: 12 we read how God told him: "For in Isaac shall thy seed be called."

From Isaac, the "seed line" passed to Jacob, then to Jacob's sons. These people became known as Haibru, or Hebrew (they were never known as "Jews"). They were called the "Children of Israel" or "Israelites." This came when Jacob's name was changed to "Israel," as recorded in Genesis 32: 28: "And he [the angel of the Lord] said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed."

These unique people (remember now, they were not Jews) expanded in numbers, power, and prestige, until in King David's time they numbered somewhere around fifteen million. While standing in the King's palace in Jerusalem, the Prophet Nathan predicted that this people would one day be planted in another land, which they did not know, and from which they would never be removed. This could not have had reference to Palestine, since they were in Palestine at the time. Read with me, if you will, from

"Moreover I [God] will appoint a place for my people Israel, and WILL PLANT THEM, that they MAY DWELL IN A PLACE OF THEIR OWN [but you say, they had a place of their own in Palestine, so this must be somewhere else], and MOVE NO MORE; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime." (Emphasis added.)

This would indicate to me that Israel was to move out of Palestine at some future date, into a land where they would be rooted and planted, and where they would be relatively safe. From this APPOINTED PLACE, they would never move! Why is it that our pastors never mention this passage? Have you ever heard a sermon preached on this verse? Well for one thing, if they did, it would destroy one of their pet theories, that the Jews must return to Palestine before our Lord returns to reign on this earth.

Now the selection of one specific people by Divine choice, for a specific purpose, was a wonderful thing. It did not call for boasting, or a feeling of superiority, for God did not call this people to "Lord it over the rest of the world," as the Jewish Talmud teaches. He called them to be a "servant nation," placed on this earth for the specific purpose of spreading God's Kingdom message. Much later, they were to become rulers, after they had first proved themselves faithful as "servants."

This should engender a feeling of humility. It was a tremendous event, when God called Israel--not because they were a powerful people, not because they were rich and plenteous and had great international influence, but because of the faithfulness of their father, Abraham, God's servant. (Read about this in Deuteronomy 7: 7-8 and Hebrews 11: 8-12.)

By a like token, it was a mighty event when God took America out of the midst of another great nation (Britain), to become a separate and special constellation among the nations of the world. Do you believe this all happened by accident? I think not!

The Apostle Paul, in his letter to the church in Rome, gives and answers the question: "Why doth the chosen people still continue to be chosen?" He answers in Romans 11: 29: "The gifts and calling of God are without repentance [not subject to change]." In other words, they were absolute and unconditional! Nowhere did God say to Israel: "If you will obey me, I will be your God." He said in effect: "YOU ARE MY PEOPLE and, because of this, YOU SHALL OBEY ME!" That little word "shall" is the key to what we see happening in America today.

Were all the promises of God mere illusions in the mind of Abraham? Just for the moment, for the sake of argument, let us assume they were. Let us assume that all of the great covenant promises God made with Abraham were nothing but delusions of grandeur; a vain desire on the part of Abraham for the distinction of his posterity. If this had been so, they would have died with Abraham, for delusions always die with deluded men.

If God's promises to Abraham had been "hatched" in a human mind, they would have come to nothing. If God had not selected and predestined a "servant-ruler race," then that race would never have served and ultimately reigned. It is not just a matter of simple faith, but a theory which can be tested by history. Things which actually happen are always valid facts; they are never deluded dreams.

None of you who read these passages ever knew George Washington, neither your father or your grandfather knew him. All we know about Washington comes from hearsay; it is what we find written in history. Yet we believe he lived and served this country as one of our great leaders.

The idea of a "servant-ruler race" did not die with Abraham. It outlived Abraham and his great-great-grandchildren. It lasted 200 years until the time of Moses. After another 450 years, it was the dominant theme of King David's time; another 300 years passed and we find this same theme being promulgated by the Prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel. We go forward another 200 years and find it in the last book of the Old Testament. It outlived the 400 years of darkness between the Old and New Testaments. It appears again in the Gospels, then in the Epistles, and finally in the last book of the New Testament, the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

It was the common language of the Pilgrim Fathers; it can be found in the Prayer Book of the early Episcopal Church. It was believed by the early Baptists and Methodists. The idea that we, the White, Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, were God's Chosen, appeared in the early hymn books, where our forefathers sang: "Ye chosen seed of Israel's race; Ye ransomed from the fall; Hail Him who saves you by His grace: and Crown Him, Lord of All!"

Our forefathers were not singing about a people we now call "Jews." Their songs were about White Christian people, which were then settled in the land God has promised their forefathers--God's APPOINTED PLACE, from which they would never be moved.

There are many marks of identity, which will tell us who these Chosen People are. If they do not bear the marks of "true identity," then they must be imposters. I heard a story which illustrates this truth. Many years ago, in England, a small boy was kidnapped from his home. In spite of every effort on the part of the authorities, he could not be found. Many years passed until, one day, the family received a letter from a lawyer in Spain. He explained how an old gypsy woman, on her deathbed, had confessed to stealing a little boy from a certain family.

The mother who had never given up hope wrote: "Check and see," she said, "if he has the lower part of his left earlobe missing; does he have a small scar on the inside of his left ankle; is there a large scar on his right thigh; does he have a strawberry birthmark between his shoulder blades?"

A few weeks later, a cablegram came in the affirmative and in great excitement they made the long trip to Spain. On arrival, they were bitterly disappointed to be introduced to a large swarthy man, dressed in gypsy clothes, who could not speak a word of English. The mother checked his left earlobe and, lo and behold, it was missing. She looked for the well-remembered scars on his ankle and thigh and they were there. Then in great agitation, through the interpreter, she asked the man to remove his shirt, and there it was, the strawberry birthmark. Without hesitation, she threw her arms around that stranger and accepted him as her son. Why?

He did not look like them. He could not remember his father's home, and spoke not one word of his father's language; he did not remember his father's God. Then why did they accept him? Because the marks of identity were there on his body and they could not be refuted.

In the same manner, "true Israel" bears certain marks which no one else can bear. They cannot be changed; they cannot be erased. Find them and you will have found the true people. There are over 200 of these marks given in Scripture and none of them fit the people your pastor calls the Chosen People; none of them come close to fitting the people we now know as Jews. So let's look at some of the more important ones:

MARKS OF IDENTITY:

1. The Chosen People would worship and revere the God of Israel, Yahveh. Take a look at a world globe and see where faith in the one true God is predominate. You will not find it among the Jews in Palestine; more than 75% of these are agnostic or outright atheists. You will not find them in the great Jewish communities of New York City and Los Angeles. These people do not worship the God of Abraham. They follow a false, heathen teaching, which came from the dusty corridors of heathen Babylon, called the Talmud. It is a complete repudiation of the laws God gave to Moses on Mt. Sinai. Don't argue with me about this, check it out for yourself.

The Chosen People were to carry the Gospel of God's Kingdom to all men everywhere. They were to be witnesses for their coming Messiah-King. Beginning in Genesis 28: 14 and continuing throughout the Old Testament, and on into the New, "true Israel" was to be the "light bearer" of God's truth. Listen to Isaiah 43: 10: "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me." Isaiah 49: 3 & 6 states: "Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified....It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles ["Ethnos," "nations"], that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth." You say: "That will happen later." It is happening now!

Who prints 95% of all the Christian literature that goes out to mankind? Certainly not the Jews! Who sends the missionaries to foreign lands? England was first, followed by the United States and Canada. You say: "But what about the 144,000 Jewish evangelists who will evangelize during the Tribulation" (Revelation 7)? But there is not one single word in this entire passage which mentions the word "Jews." Why? Because these are not Jews, they are Israelites. There is a vast difference!

This prophecy has been fulfilled only by the White, Anglo-Saxon and related peoples. Those people who go by the name of Christian. You don't have to look any further, neither do you need to spiritualize away its meaning by saying: "This means the church."

When Jesus spoke to His little band of followers on the Mount of Olives, before He left this world (Acts 1: 8), He was not speaking to Jews. Note how specific the wording of this verse is (Acts 1: 11): "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven?" These were the people of the "Way," who were soon to be known as Christians (Acts 11: 26).

2. The Chosen Race was to have and honor the Scripture. To the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, the Bible is the people's book. In other lands, where it exists at all, such as Italy, Spain and Portugal, it is the Book of Church. There is a great difference! To the Jew, their sacred book is the heathen Talmud, which supercedes the Old Testament Pentateuch. The Talmud, with its occultism, is the guiding spiritual light of Judaism. It is a Satan inspired book. You can prove this easily enough, by merely reading a little of it. It did not come from God but was "man-made"; its thousands of pages contain the traditions of the Levites, who then became the Pharisees and now the Rabbis.

If you will remember, Jesus Christ had a major condemnation for the Pharisees of His day. He said of them "making the word of God of none effect through your traditions" (Mark 7: 13). Then to be sure there were at least two confirmed witnesses to His accusation, we find in Matthew 15: 9: "In vain they [the Jews] do worship me [God], teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." No, my Christian friends, these Chosen People cannot be Jews.

3. In Anglo-Saxon and kindred lands, the Christian Sabbath is a day of rest and worship and is so established by law. There is a great deal of difference between the Anglo-Saxon Sunday and that observed in the Latin countries, where elections are often held on Sunday. The main effort to destroy the meaning of the Christian Sabbath has been carried out by the Jews, who have successfully commercialized it most everywhere.

4. The Chosen People were to be a missionary people. As I mentioned earlier, 95% of the world missionary effort comes from the White Christian nations of the world. They do not preach a "church system," as do the missionaries from the Roman Catholic countries, but the liberating power of Christ's saving grace to all mankind. They are merely fulfilling the ancient prophecy of Isaiah 40: 3: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

It has been the White Christian nations which have formed a living highway, along which Jesus the Christ has traveled. It has crossed Europe, to England, then to America and on to the Dark Continent of Africa, to Asia and the Isles of the sea.

We know about and grieve for the sins which have been committed in our Christian nations. Yet, in spite of these--in many cases promoted by these people called Jews--50% of the world Sunday School attendance is to be found in spiritually careless United States of America, and the other 45% is in other Anglo-Saxon nations.

On the other hand, the religion we know as Judaism has never sought to bring men to God the Father, or His Son, Jesus the Christ. When they did convert men to Judaism, Christ said of them: "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte [convert], and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves." (Matthew 23: 15.) How could this be any plainer?

5. The Chosen People were to offer havens of refuge to the world's oppressed. In Isaiah 61: 1, we are told of this mission in these words: "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound."

Have you ever seen the magnificent Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor? Engraved across its base are these words (written by a Marxist, I will have to admit, but true nevertheless): "Give me your poor, your tired, your huddled masses; yearning to breathe free!" Men everywhere have believed and they have come by their countless millions from every land. It has been Christian Israel-America and her sister, Israel nation of Canada, who have opened their doors to the world's oppressed. Have you ever heard of the Jews doing this? You are welcomed by the Israelis, only if you are a Jew and can help them.

The Jews have never set people free. They have been the most notorious slave traders in the world's history. It is a matter of record. They owned 75% of the slave ships and carried out most of the slave trade prior to the Civil War. Why? Because they have always made profit off the misery of others. It was Anglo-Saxon England who first set her slaves free in 1834, followed closely by her rebellious daughter, America, in 1860. We even fought one of our most costly wars over the issue. The Anglo-Saxons have always been liberators; the Jews never!

6. In their great trek to their APPOINTED PLACE, the Chosen People were to move north and west of Palestine. Listen to Isaiah 49: 12 where it speaks about the token group who would one day return to Palestine: "Behold, these [chosen] shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim."

This migration is rather strange, when you realize that most Semitic peoples had the tendency to move east and south. Yet God said His people would go north and west and this they did.

7. The Chosen People were to be a separate people. While they mingled with other people, they would never be swallowed up by them. A striking example of this can be found in the Lombards of Northern Italy. These people are predominately Anglo-Saxon in background and, even today, they remain racially separated from the peoples of Southern Italy, most of whom are mongrels.

In spite of every effort on the part of the Jewish one-worlders to integrate the White Christian foundations of our Christian countries, we have somehow been able to maintain our Christian identity. There must be a reason for this. In contrast, the Jews are a heterogeneous (not made up of one pure line) mixture of peoples. They have been since the days of Ezra and Nehemiah, when a motley crew returned from captivity in Babylon. Nehemiah complained that they could not even speak their mother tongue. This great mixing process had begun under the influence of King Solomon, where we read in I Kings 11: 1: "But King Solomon loved many strange women." (This word "strange" comes from the Hebrew word "nakriy" and means "foreign or alien.")

When the Book of Esther was written, about 521 B.C., we read in 8: 17: "Many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews." At this time, the Persian Empire stretched over 127 provinces from Greece to the western borders of India, and from the Caucasus Mountains to the Persian Gulf and the Indian Ocean. It included Egypt, Mesopotamia, Assyria, Babylon, Afghanistan, and part of Turkestan. It is hard to think of a race which was not included in this area, unless it might have been the ancestors of the American Indians. Among all these peoples, millions became Jews, not because they loved and revered God, not because of a sense of righteousness, but the Bible says because they were afraid. This religion was not a thing of the heart, but an outward form only. Yet technically, these millions entered the bloodstream of the present Jewish people.

In his book, "Israel Among the Nations," Jewish author, Anatole Beaulieu, states that the Jews engaged in slave trade and often circumcised their slaves. He mentions 200,000 Black Jews from Abyssinia (modern Ethiopia) and states: "Towards the eighth century, to the north of the Black Sea, in the Scythian steppes, a people of Finnio-Turkish stock, the Kozars, Khazars, went over in a body to the Old Law." (Jewish.) These people, which make up at least 90% of present day Palestine, never had an ancestor who had stepped foot in the Holy Land.

The Jew, as we know him today, is vastly different from those of Jesus' time, with the exception of their religion, which is still the Satanism our Lord condemned almost 2000 years ago.

8. The Chosen People were to become a "great nation, and a company of nations." Not even by the most fertile stretch of imagination can an "Israelophile" fit this mark of identity to the Jews. Today, they number less than eighteen million worldwide, with less than three million living in Palestine. The great return to their so-called "homeland" in Palestine has been a farce, in spite of all efforts by the fundamentalist prophetic preachers to the contrary. For the past ten years, more Jews have been leaving Palestine than are coming in. Where are they going? You guessed it. To the Promised Land in America. The Jews in America and other White lands have always represented a "nation within nations." They have never become a great nation, to say anything about a "company of nations," but the British Commonwealth nations fit this description exactly.

9. The Chosen People were to inherit the "desolate places" of the earth. This could not possibly be Palestine, since, before the time of the Exodus, Palestine has been a heavily populated country. Listen to Isaiah 49: 8: "Thus saith the Lord, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, TO CAUSE TO INHERIT THE DESOLATE HERITAGES." (Emphasis added.)

When our forefathers first came to America, there were less than a quarter of a million Indians roaming her vast expanse, so this Biblical description could not possibly describe Palestine. But it does describe England, which was uninhabited before our forefathers arrived there, and it does describe America, and Australia, and South Africa.

Now here is a very interesting fact I will throw in just as a matter of interest. In the 41st chapter of Isaiah, the Prophet is describing the land where Israel will settle. Listen to this description: "I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water." NOTICE VERY CAREFULLY THIS NEXT VERSE: "I [God] will plant in the WILDERNESS the cedar, the shittah tree, and the MYRTLE, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together." Palestine has been denuded of all her forests until recently when man, not God, began to replant. Certainly Israeli is not noted for its forests. But the North American Continent is and among the trees which grow here is the myrtle tree.

This was the tree once known as the "cedar of Lebanon," and has been extinct in Palestine for centuries. The only place in the entire world, where this tree now grows, is on the west coast of the United States. It is our giant redwood. Isn't it marvelous, and, yes, exciting, to realize that over 5,000 years ago, God Himself planted these trees in the New World, for the use of His Israel people?

10. Another outstanding mark of Israel identity would be that "true Israel" should lose their identity. This cannot be said of the people we know as Jews; they have bragged of their "Chosen People" status for centuries. You can find an interesting clue in John 8: 33. Jesus had just got done telling the Pharisees: "If ye shall know the truth, the truth shall make you free." In their Jewish arrogance, they sneeringly say: "We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man." If this were true and we have no reason to doubt it, then these people, while quite possibly of Abraham's blood, could not have been of the chosen line of Jacob-Israel. Any Sunday School student knows that true Israel was in captivity in Egypt, then later in Assyria and Babylonia. Yet these fellows bragged that they had never been in bondage. They knew who they were, all right!

Only a few of "true Israel" knew their true identity. It was prophesied that, in the "latter days," they would begin to see the light. This is happening, praise God! Hardly a week passes, that I do not receive a letter or telephone call from pastors, or people, who belong to fundamental churches, who begin to see the truth. Like I did, they begin by accepting the truth, that the people we know as Jews cannot possibly be true Israel. Once they have accepted this, it is easy for them to see the truth about their own identity. Almost without fail, when this truth dawns in their minds, they exclaim: "The Bible is so much clearer to me now that I know who I am." Unfortunately, most of these pastors, who have been given the truth, have not had the courage to pass it on to their people. They know that, if they did, they would become the recipients of scorn, and, yes, literal persecution. So they remain silent!

The Israel people became lost to Bible history, when they went into captivity in Assyria. We have only a hint of them in the New Testament. As a result, Bible scholars and teachers have sought to identify what they choose to call the "lost ten tribes of Israel." But they are not lost! You may not know where they are, your pastor may not know, but thank God, He knows! Today, the Chosen Race is beginning to come alive, as the "dead bones" of Ezekiel 37 are beginning to show life. One of the major hindrances for our people learning the truth is that those, we call "Jews," are trying to steal our "birthright," and the Jewish stooges in our churches are helping them, by falsely identifying them as the Chosen People.

In Isaiah 42: 16, speaking of "true Israel," we read: "I will bring the [Israel] blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them."

God's promise is that, in the "latter days," the veil of blindness will be lifted from the eyes of our people and they will come to know who they really are. This is the reason I wrote this message. I want you to understand that, if you are a White member of the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, you are one of God's Chosen People by right of birth. When you finally accept this truth, then you will realize how very important it is for you to accept the Lordship of Jesus Christ, the MESSIAH!

Now I am going to contradict some Identity preaching, for a very good reason. Some Identity preachers will tell you that all that is necessary for you to be accepted into God's Kingdom is to be a member of His People. This is false teaching! Jesus told a very righteous man named Nicodemus (John 3: 3), "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." While this term is in bad repute today, it is a perfectly good word and a condition that is necessary for anyone to enter the Kingdom.

Thank God, people by the tens of thousands are beginning to wake up throughout Christendom as to who they are. I believe, as the dark clouds of the coming Communist invasion of Israel-America rolls over our land, we will see more and more of our people recognize this truth. Then we will see the mighty revival, which must take place before this country is saved. I believe that one day soon we will see the enemies of God and "true Israel" overwhelmed on the mountains of Israel-America (not in Palestine), just as God described in Ezekiel 38 & 39. When people begin to realize that the evil in this world system is being perpetuated in the name of Judaism, they will realize the truth of our Lord's words, to the Church at Smyrna, when He said: "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan" (Revelation 2: 9).

There is no doubt in my mind that many who read these words will not want to accept them, even in the face of all the evidence I have given you, which would stand up in any court of law. So let me quote from a few Jewish sources, and let you see what they say about themselves.

In the book, "The Conspiracy of Truth," the Jewish author, W. D. Chalmers states: "But why, you might reasonably ask, should the richest people in the world [Jews] promote a socialist system? The answer appears to be that, under socialism, the state owns everything, and these people [Jews] intend, quite simply, to own the State."

The Foreign Minister of Germany after World

War I was a Jew named Walter Rathenau. He was the richest man in Germany, heading 86 German companies and 26 overseas. He wrote in Neve Freie Presse, December 1909: "Three hundred men (all Jews), all acquainted with each other, control the economic destiny of the Continent." He contributed lavishly of his wealth in support of the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia.

Henry Waton was an early Jewish Communist leader in the United States. In his book, "A Program for the Jews," he wrote:

"Communism is the destiny of mankind. There is one work in sociology, and only one work, and that is Marx's CAPITAL. Only a Jew could have written this work.

"The Jews are the highest and most cultured people on earth....The Jews have the right to subordinate to themselves the rest of mankind and to be the masters over the whole world. The Jews will become the masters over the whole earth, and they WILL subordinate to themselves, all nations, not by material power, not by brute force, but by light, knowledge, understanding, humanity, peace, justice and progress.

"The Aryans (Anglo-Saxons) will enlarge and beautify the world [they have]; but they will settle to enjoy the world which they have created, only in the tents of the Jews. These tents are communism and internationalism.

"The Jews shall inherit this earth...all other races will disappear or they will become Jews."

The above astounding declaration was published by a group calling themselves The Committee for the Preservation of the Jews. It was sponsored by the prestigious Spinoza Institution of New York City.

This is present Jewish attitude through and through. How can we expect them to be anything but aggressive, when they are taught racial superiority in their schools and synagogues?

Americans have been led to believe, in recent months, that Jews are being persecuted in the Soviet Union. More and more evidence is surfacing, which proves this to be false. There is no doubt that some Jews in the Soviet Union have come under Communist persecution, as have tens of millions of Christians. But overall, evidence proves that the Jews are doing well in the U.S.S.R. Fortune Magazine, in its June 29, 1981 issue, published one of the most sensational articles ever to appear in the Western Press. It was entitled "Russia's Underground Millionaires." It was written by a Jew, Konstanin Simis. Mr. Simis held an important position in the Soviet Ministry of Justice. Here are a few excerpts from this article:

"The greater number of private businesses which have been allowed to operate in Russia, the Ukraine and the Baltic Republics are owned predominately by Jews. These are not small businesses, but include tens of thousands of large factories mainly concentrating on such items as clothing, shoes, artificial leather goods, sunglasses, costume jewelry and recordings of popular Western music."

He goes on to state that private Jewish businesses have been allowed under Lenin, Stalin, Khrushchev, and Brezhnev. (It is interesting to note that all four of these men were married to Jewesses.)

Simis states that one of Russia's richest families is the Jewish Glazenberg family. They own so many factories, they were forced to set up their own marketing agency. Another prominent Jewish business family is that of Isaac Bach, who went into business in the mid-1930's under the regime of Stalin and has prospered ever since.

In addition to receiving special privileges, Simis says the Russian Jews are allowed to support the Israelis, which will no doubt be a shock to some who believe the U.S.S.R is opposed to the Israeli State. Simis said that millionaire Jews live a life of special privilege and luxury and own Odessa, on the Black Sea, while millions of Gentiles live in abject poverty. They have their own private clubs in Moscow, operated by a Jewess named Elizabeth Mirkien. She serves sumptuous Jewish food. They have their own gaming casino and young prostitutes are provided by the Mirkien salon.

Simis warns that the Jews in Russia are flaunting their immense wealth, as they did in the Weimar Republic of Germany in the 1920's. It was the Jewish financial stranglehold over Germany that led to the excesses against the Jews under Hitler. Simis says: "History may repeat itself; this time in Russia. If this happens and communism collapses, the Russian people will rise up in their wrath and punish the Jews for imposing communist slavery on them. This could result in a bloodbath, such as the world has never seen." Jewish world leaders, blinded by their program of world conquest, never seem to learn from history and their people suffer as the result.

Now since we have digressed a bit, let us get back to WHO ARE WE?

My first step to an understanding of Israel Identity came when I became honest enough to realize that what I had been taught about the Jews for 50 years was false, and these people could not possibly fill the marks of Israel Identity. So I began to search the Scripture on my own. I didn't go to any man, or the works of any man, but relied completely on God's Word. He was faithful to His promises and showed me the truth about His people, for which I praise Him! This can be the experience of any Christian who will honestly study this problem from an unbiased Christian basis.

For the first time in my life, I honestly became concerned about what the Word taught. I no longer accept the teaching of some fallible man, just because he has a string of degrees behind his name. As I went to the Word, it was with the prayer that I might open my mind to the truth and let His Spirit guide me.

So as we near the end of this message, for a little while try and forget all the sermons you may have heard which praised the Jews. Forget what you heard Billy Graham, Jack Van Impe, David Webber, R. B. Thieme, or Hal Lindsay say. Forget the pro-Jewish propaganda which has come from the Jewish-controlled media; forget the footnotes you may have read in your Scofield Reference Bible and let the Holy Spirit guide you. You will be amazed how simple this is!

Then, if you believe what the Word says, you will be faced with the unassailable fact, that the Anglo-Saxon and related people, and they alone, bear the identifying marks of "true Israel."

If White Christian people in the lands of Christendom ever become aware of this mighty truth, you will see a spiritual revival sweep our countries which will be unrivaled in world history. You will see White Christians down on their knees, begging God for forgiveness, and you will see the literal fulfillment of II Chronicles 7: 14: "If my people, WHICH ARE CALLED BY MY NAME, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; THEN WILL I HEAR FROM HEAVEN, AND WILL FORGIVE THEIR SIN, AND WILL HEAL THEIR LAND." There is the answer, straight from the lips of Almighty God! When this happens, you will see the greatest miracle in the world's history, outside the miracle on the Cross.

Why is it that Godly men, who stand behind the pulpits of our most prestigious churches, refuse to accept this marvelous, plain teaching from the Word? Is it because they are afraid to admit they have been wrong for so long? I believe it is! I think their pride stands in the way of their honesty! They are afraid of what people will say about them. Then, too, they do not have the courage to face the opposition which they know will come from Jewish sources. Many times people ask me: "Aren't you afraid to speak out as you do? Don't you know this is dangerous?" I am not afraid because I know God still sits on the throne of the Universe and He, and He alone, controls it. I know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that no one can put his hand on my life for evil, unless God in His wisdom allows it. If it is God's will that I suffer for righteousness' sake, I recall the words of our Lord in the Sermon on the Mount:

"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven ['Heaven,' Greek 'ouranos,' meaning 'the abode of God'].\" (Matthew 5: 10-12.)

Back in the 1920's, the great Christian industrialist, Henry Ford, Sr., warned American Christians that most of the major seminaries had been sold a "false bill of goods," and were teaching that the Jews were God's Chosen People. He said this was "tearing the Christian world apart." In Chapter Two, of his monumental book, "The International Jew," page 21, he says: "The Jews are propagandists. This was their original mission. They are now without a mission and few of their leaders claim to be spiritual. Judaism has degenerated and represents the greatest materialism of our day."

Then on page 25, he strikes at the very heart of the problem in fundamentalism:

"The last place an uninstructed observer would look for traces of Jewish influence should be in the Christian church. If the libraries of our theological seminaries were equipped with complete files of Jewish literary effort during recent decades, and if theological students were required to read these Jewish utterances, there would be less silly talk and fewer 'easy marks' for Jewish propaganda in the American pulpits....There is a mission for the pulpit to liberate the church from what the New Testament calls the 'fear of the Jews.' The pulpit also has the mission of liberating the church from the error that Judah and Israel are synonymous. The reading of the Scriptures, which confuse the tribe of Judah with Israel, and which interpret every mention of Israel as signifying the Jews, is at the root of more than half of the confusion and divisions traceable in Christian doctrinal statements.

"The flaccid condition of the church, so much deplored by spokesmen who have regard for her inner life, was brought about not by science, nor by scholarship, nor by the increase of light and learning--for none of these are antagonistic to the truth--but by Jewish-German Higher Criticism. The defenders of the faith have fought long and valiantly against the inroads of Higher Criticism, but are sadly incapacitated in their defense, because they did not see that its origin and purpose was Jewish. It was not Christian; it was not German; IT WAS JEWISH!

"Jews have invaded in person, and in program, hundreds of American churches, with their subversive and impossible social ideals. They got hold of the church in doctrine, in liberalism, in so-called and feeble sociological diversions of many classes....The modern church has unconsciously given allegiance to a mass of Jewish propaganda."

Nowhere can this be more clearly seen than in the case of Dr. Jerry Falwell and his Moral Majority. They take strong stands against the evils which are destroying America; they hack valiantly at the arms of the international octopus, but they refuse to strike at its Jewish heart. In fact, they even refuse to expose it! Instead, Falwell has become the greatest apologist in America for the Bandit State of the Israeli.

I am not proposing reaction, no matter what conclusion you may have come to. I do ask for progress along constructive Christian lines; I am asking for the same action our Christian Anglo-Saxon forefathers would have taken. These were the men who were the world builders; these were the makers of the great cities; the founders of commerce and trade. The Jews have always worked these things for their own benefit, not for the good of mankind. Jews have never been builders, for theirs is a mission of hate and world destruction. On page 185 of his book, "You Gentiles," the Jewish author, Maurice Samuels states: "In everything, we Jews are the destroyers. Our Jewish geniuses, in the midst of your world, are an alien and destructive element, more clearly revealed as such, because they are articulate." (They never cease to hide the fact that they are here to destroy.)

Now, believe it or not, most of what I have said so far in Part Two was by the way of introduction. The idea of a Chosen People has been accepted by most Christians, since it is based on Scriptural fact. So let us begin our technical study by looking at the history of the Zionist nation. (I do not use the word "Jewish" for a specific purpose.)

There is a secular record of history which always runs parallel to the sacred history of the Bible. The story of God's destruction of 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in one night is paralleled in the historical clay tablets of Assyrian history for the year 700 B.C. (Read this account in II Kings 19: 35.)

Our Bible is but a small section of human history, seen in a special light and for a specific purpose. It tells us about the origin, organization and dispersion of Israel and about the coming of the Gospel of the Kingdom. It is through the windows of the Bible that we can see God's hand as it works in history.

Secular history always glorifies man and their actions, but Bible history differs, in that it glorifies God. It is always mercifully true and never seeks to "whitewash" distasteful facts. It tells the truth about the great heroes of the Bible. It shows Jacob-Israel as a cheat; Moses involved in manslaughter; David, the beloved of the Lord, as an adulterer, which ultimately led to murder; it shows Peter as a liar and coward, and the Pharisee, Saul of Tarsus, later to become the Apostle Paul, as he became the bitterest enemy of Christianity. The Bible can do this, because human fact is not history. The true history is that of God, working through fallible men.

You will notice three major historical movements in the history of the Israel people and, on each occasion, this was brought about by unjust taxation. The first was in Egypt, about 1491 B.C., where their rebellion was based on unjust labor levies, as recorded in Exodus 6.

The second was when Israel seceded from Judah in 975 B.C., because of the labor levy which had been instituted by Solomon, and which his son, Rehoboam, refused to relieve (I Kings 12: 14-16).

The third breakaway occurred when "Israel in the Isles," partly settled in their APPOINTED PLACE in America, revolted against the unfair taxation of George III of England, which had been brought about through the machinations of international Jewry. It was the Jewish bankers who controlled English economics, which forced England into a war with her American Colonies.

When Israel left Egypt and entered the land which had been promised to their father, Abraham, some 430 years earlier in Genesis 12: 6-7, they made it their own, by right of "eminent spiritual domain." The reason for this 430-year lapse between the promise of Genesis 12 and its fulfillment in Genesis 15: 16 can be found in this verse: "But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the INIQUITY OF THE AMORITES IS NOT YET FULL." (Emphasis added.)

God is a God of justice, but His justice is always tempered by mercy. He always gives individuals and nations the choice of serving Him voluntarily, so He appointed a grace period for the Amorites, the original inhabitants of Palestine, and when their gross sin and immorality continued, after 430 years of grace, Israel was ordered to march in and "blot them out."

In Palestine, Israel established a theocratic form of government--a government of God. It was a representative form of government, but not a "democracy," which God abhors. Moses and Aaron stood for God, they represented Him in His dealings with the Israelite people (see Exodus 18: 21).

The only time on record when Israel tried a "democracy" was when Moses was on Mt. Sinai and the people "conned" Aaron, without too much effort, into erecting the Golden Calf. You remember what a disaster that was. History has proven, over and over again, that, when a "one man, one vote" system is established, "all hell breaks loose."

As long as Israel followed the representative form of government, she prospered and had the highest degree of liberty and happiness in their long history. These same blessings will be returned to the Israel people, when our governments return to God's way of doing things and when we once more are willing to follow His laws. These were given, after all, for the welfare and happiness of God's people.

Strangely enough, one of these laws, which we have blatantly disregarded in the United States in the past fifty years, can be found in the New Testament, II Thessalonians 3: 10: "This we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat." God has never had a place in His plans for a Welfare State, or a lazy people. This was a Jewish social idea which is now strangling us.

The people of ancient Israel, like their modern counterparts in America, were not satisfied with what they had. They wanted to experiment. They wanted to try a New Deal; a Great New Society. The Bible says: "They went after strange gods." This does not mean they stopped the worship of Jehovah, no indeed; they were probably the most religious people in the whole world, but they followed heathen practices, the economic and moral practices, which were built on the false "Gold Standard" of heathen Babylon. (We still have this system with us today.)

This idolatrous practice produced great wealth, side by side with great poverty. While God was at the center of their religious life, their secular and economic existence was ruled by "other gods." This is the same thing we see happening in Christian nations today.

Today our churches are full with what I call "Alka Seltzer Christians." These are the folks who come to church on Sunday, and "fizz for an hour," then forget their Christianity for the rest of the week. No wonder we have lost our spiritual power. As a result of this, many churches, which used to glorify God, have become sort of "glorified religious country clubs," where people belong because it helps in the business, or adds to their prestige in the community. American Christians in a large part have become folks who worship God with their mouth, while allowing the "golden calf" to govern their lives. "This people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men." (Isaiah 29: 13.) (The Hebrew word used here for "precept" is "mitsvah," which means "human orders.")

Our Christian Capitalist System of Free Enterprise, which has given us the highest living standard in the world, has brought more material good, to a greater number of people, in a shorter period of time, than any other; yet we seem to want to "chuck it" for the Jewish Socialist schemes which have never proved successful.

When the nation of Israel reached the zenith of its greatness, a split occurred, leaving Judah and Benjamin, with part of the tribe of Levi, in the South, and the other tribes in the North. Most of the Levites stayed with Judah, since the temple was located in Jerusalem. The people called "Jews" did not show up on the biblical scene until almost 235 years later, when they first appear in II Kings 16: 6, about 742 B.C.

While most Christians believe the words "Israel" and "Jew" are synonymous, they are not and the Bible makes a very careful distinction between these two groups. Somehow or other, our fundamental preachers and Bible scholars refuse to accept this truth and insist they are one and the same. The leaders of Israel came primarily from the Joseph tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh. Moses was not a Judaite, therefore could not properly be called a Jew. He was from the priestly tribe of Levi. Joshua was an Ephraimite, as was Deborah and the Prophet Samuel. Saul, the first king of Israel, was from the tribe of Benjamin, the same one which produced the Apostle Paul many centuries later. (See Philippians 3: 5 and notice how careful Paul was to designate himself as an Israelite.) This same line of division can be found in the Bible census which were taken in I Samuel 11: 8 and II Samuel 24: 9.

A little careful Bible study should convince you of the error of using the word "Jew" every time the word "Israel" appears. About 975 B.C., the split between the two nations became final (See I Kings 12: 17-21).

Many generations later, the Northern Kingdom was taken captive into Assyria. According to many historical accounts and extensive archeological findings, they traveled north and west into Europe and became the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic and related peoples of Europe. The Southern Kingdom of Judah was taken captive much later into Babylonia, and a "mixed multitude" of about 50,000 people, under Ezra and Nehemiah, returned approximately seventy years later. It was this group which brought with them the Satanically inspired Babylonian Talmud. The priests of that day, striving for political power within the nation, became the Pharisees of Christ's time and from them came the Rabbis of modern Judaism. This Pharisaic group was the one to which Christ addressed His sharpest rebukes, when He said: "Ye believe not, BECAUSE YE ARE NOT OF MY SHEEP" (John 10: 26). How much clearer does the Word have to become before you will believe?

At this time, we must also take note of a third house, called in Scripture the "house of David." When Nathan the Prophet told David in I Chronicles 17: 9, "Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place," the Hebrew nation was reaching the zenith of its power. It hardly seemed possible that they would move from their place in Palestine, but God said they would. They were to go to a "new place."

A great deal of pressure was exerted on the translators of the Bible to use the words: "I have appointed them a place." If this had been accomplished, then the "Appointed Place" could just as well have been in Palestine and the religious leaders would not have to change their teachings, but the translators of the King James Version, the Moffatt, and even the liberal Goodspeed, translated the words correctly: "I will ordain, or I will appoint a place." (The word "appoint," according to Webster's Dictionary, means: "to fix or set officially; to arrange.") Why then do our fundamental preachers and scholars insist this Appointed Place has to be Palestine when the Word of God clearly indicates otherwise?

Some translators did succumb to Jewish pressure. One was Dr. Kenneth Taylor, in his paraphrase, The Living Bible. He quotes this verse as saying: "And I will give a permanent home to my people Israel, and I will plant them in their land." Do you see the difference this makes? The modern English translation of Ferrar Fenton, translated directly from the original Hebrew and Chaldean, quotes this verse thusly: "I am also preparing a place for My People of Israel and am planting it, to dwell under itself and it shall never shake."

The second major promise made to David was that his "house" would never want a man to sit on the throne of Israel. This prophecy was made about 975 B.C. The last of David's descent, 390 years later, had disappeared from the Biblical scene. Does this mean that God broke His promise with David? Not at all! It merely means that, just as in many other areas, we do not know what happened.

The Christian church has tried to answer this dilemma by spiritualizing the promise and saying that Jesus Christ came from the line of David and that it was He who would perpetuate David's throne. What about the 400 intervening years between the Old and New Testaments? God's promise said, "You will NEVER lack a man to sit on David's throne," so, somewhere, there must have been a descendant of David, who was reigning on a throne.

When Judah was taken captive into Babylon, Zedekiah, the last of David's line, saw all his sons killed by Nebuchadnezzar, before he was taken captive to Babylon (II Kings 25: 7). There is little doubt that the Babylonian monarch thought he had killed all of the royal seed. But Jeremiah the Prophet, with his secretary Baruch, and the king's daughters, escaped into Egypt (See Jeremiah 43).

No more is told about Jeremiah's mission to "build and to plant" (Jeremiah 1: 10), until he, Baruch and the king's daughters appear in early Irish history, in the British Isles. Now I realize this is not in the Bible, but it is in history, just as clearly as the fact that George Washington was once President of these United States. Many modern scholars do not want to accept this proof, but there it is and it cannot be laughed away. (Maybe this is one reason so many Irishmen are named Jerry; it certainly isn't a popular Jewish name.)

According to ancient Celtic history, the king's daughters married into Irish royalty, and this can be traced, without a break, to the present reign of Queen Elizabeth.

There are literally volumes of ancient history, pointing to the fact that the throne of David, which became extinct in Palestine, was replanted among the Israel people in the British Isles. You would think this would make the "fundamentalists jump for joy," since it is certainly a vindication of the authenticity of the Bible. But no, instead, these men appear bent on refusing to accept British history, while believing historical accounts from Egypt and Assyria, which are centuries older.

In the September 1981 issue of Bob Jones University's Faith for the Family Magazine, Dan Olinger wrote an article entitled "British-Israelism." On page 2, he shows an old Jew (it is obviously a Jew, since he has a hooked nose and is wearing the traditional skull cap), as he sits reading a Bible, before a British flag, which has been superimposed on the six-pointed Star of David. This leaves a false impression without saying a word. It says in effect: "Israel and the Jews are one and the same." We have seen the fallacy of this belief. Olinger states: "Hence the legend about Jeremiah. A leading Irish historian [whom he fails to name] has stated: 'This legend is not asserted by a single scholar in Irish history anywhere; absolutely no one in Irish history puts his name to it.'"

He goes on to say that the only proof for Jeremiah's stay in the British Isles comes from unreliable Irish Chronicles. Folks, this simply is not true! E. Raymond Capt, M.A., A.I.A., F.S.A. Scot, of the Archeological Institute of America, believes this story; as does Professor Sir W. M. Flinder Petrie, Professor of Egyptology, from the University of London, and many more.

There are many historical records which point to Israel's presence in Britain at a very early date, some say as much as 1500 years before the time of Christ. On Ptolemy's map (an astronomer and geographer who lived in Alexandria, Egypt, about 130 A.D.), of Ireland, in the northeast corner of the island, we find such Israelite names as "Dan-Sawar" (Dan's resting place); and "Dan-Sobairse" (Dan's habitation). Gladstone's Juventus Mundi, and the old Psalter of Chashel, both state that some of the Grecian Danai (tribe of Dan) left Greece and invaded Ireland. Writers such as Petanius and Hecatoeus of Abedera (Sixth Century) speak of the Danai as being Hebrews, who came from Egypt to colonize Ireland.

"The History of Ireland," by Moore, states that the ancient Irish called the Danai "Danes." After they crossed to Greece, they then invaded Ireland. This is the story as told in British history and can be found in the prestigious Westminster Abbey, where you can also find the chronology of British Royalty, which goes back to David without a break. Why is it that our modern scholars refuse to accept these facts and still cling to the "Jewish fables," Paul warned about in Titus 1: 14: "Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

In this same article, Olinger says: "British-Israelism ignores Deuteronomy 28: 63-66, which states that, as long as Israel is out of the land of Palestine, they are under the curse." This is not what it says at all. In fact it is an excellent example of how fundamentalists twist Scripture to come up with their own interpretation. Here is what it says:

"And it shall come to pass, that as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind: And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life."

These verses speak of Israel being scattered because of the evil they have done in refusing to follow God's laws. It says absolutely nothing about being cursed because they are outside the land of Palestine.

Again Olinger states that God did not make an unconditional promise to perpetuate David's throne, but that He threatened in I Kings 9: 6-7 an interruption of this throne through disobedience. Let us see what these verses really say: "But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children...then will I cut off Israel out of the land...and this house [speaking of the temple]...will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people." There is not one word, or hint, of an ending to David's throne in these verses.

Olinger then goes on to point out that the Apostle James in Acts 15: 16 indicated that David's house had indeed fallen. Here is what it says: "After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down." Once again, this verse says nothing about David's throne.

In order to avoid any further controversy on this point, let us go straight to the final authority and see what it does say: "I [God] will set up thy seed [David's] after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels...AND I WILL ESTABLISH THE THRONE OF HIS KINGDOM FOR EVER." (II Samuel 7: 12-13.) (Emphasis added.) (The Hebrew word used here for "forever," is "olam," which means: "eternity; always; continuous; everlasting.") Then God goes on in verses 14 and 15 to say that, if David's seed were to do wrong, "I will chasten him!" Verses 15 and 16 give us the correct answer, and, Mr. Olinger, it says you are WRONG! "But my mercy SHALL NOT DEPART AWAY FROM HIM [David and his seed]...and thine house and thy kingdom SHALL BE ESTABLISHED FOR EVER before thee: thy throne SHALL BE ESTABLISHED FOR EVER." (Emphasis added.)

To place a "capstone" on my argument, turn to I Kings 8: 25. This is part of Solomon's prayer: "Keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, THERE SHALL NOT FAIL THEE A MAN IN MY [God's] SIGHT TO SIT ON THE THRONE OF ISRAEL." Now either God is a liar, or someone else is trying to "pull the wool over your eyes," you be the judge!

The entire book of Isaiah was written in Judea, but was addressed to Israel in the Isles. (See Isaiah 41: 1-5 & 8-9.) All of these verses were addressed to an Israel who had been cast out of her original land.

I believe the problem of modern Christianity goes much deeper than a mere acknowledgement that the ten tribes still exist. If the White, Anglo-Saxon peoples of the world would honestly study God's Word and secular history which backs it up, they would believe what they found there and would know they were God's people, chosen for a "special purpose." This knowledge would not make us puff up with superiority, but would give us a clearer understanding of God's will, not only for our personal lives, but for our nations as well. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could have a great confederation of nations who glorified God, put Him first in their lives and could honestly be called "Christian?"

How glibly most Christians mouth the words of that wonderful promise given to us in II Chronicles 7: 14. Not one in a hundred know what they really mean. Yet we are His people, not only because of the wonderful salvation He offers us through His Son, but because somehow, in His infinite mercy, He has chosen us to be His witnesses to all the world.

When Judah went into captivity in Babylon, she was promised a homecoming in seventy years. A relatively small number returned under Ezra and Nehemiah, but nowhere was Israel promised a homecoming. Instead, she was told of a "tender twig" which would be cropped from the royal house and carried by God's hand into a foreign land. (Read Ezekiel 17: 22-24 and note the Divine Signature affixed.)

Years later, the Prophet Hosea (1: 10) was to say of Israel, after she had traveled to that faraway land: "Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured." Do you mean to tell me that the relatively few Jews on this earth fulfill this promise? Then the Prophet went on to say: "And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, YE ARE NOT MY PEOPLE [they would be known as 'Gentiles' and even their pastors would tell them: 'You are not God's people!'], there it shall be said unto them, YE ARE THE SONS OF THE LIVING GOD." (See John 1: 12.)

So you see, it really doesn't matter what the fundamentalist or liberal scoffers say. They can disbelieve and miss out on the tremendous blessings of knowing they are God's people, but this does not change what God has prepared for those who recognize who they are and what they must do.

We could stop here and spend pages going into the fascinating story of Solomon's navy, as it went through the Straits of Gibraltar, possibly as far as Britain. There are many historians, and some Bible scholars, who believe ancient Tarshish was the British Isles. The maritime tribe of Israel was Dan and they left their name all over Europe, such as "Danube," "Danmark," "Danzig," and others.

All over Europe, you can find these Israel signs. The Scots or Gaels, as they were formerly called, is a perfect word derivative of "Galilu." You will find this word in the city of Galatia on the southwest coasts of the Black Sea. It can be found on the northwest tip of Portugal and again among the "Gauls" of Spain. Did all these Israelitish names just happen? I rather believe not!

Bible scholars have speculated about the eighteen years of Christ's life, which are lost in Bible history. These are the years between when He was seen in the Temple at the age of twelve and when He was baptized in Jordan by John. Yet there is historic evidence of these years. It is strong enough that, when the researchers for the film, "In Search of Historic Jesus," began to dig into old history, they came up with the distinct possibility that Christ may have traveled to Britain with his uncle, Joseph of Arimathea. It is known that this man was very wealthy and owned tin mines in Cornwall, which he visited on occasion. What is so far-fetched about a teenager going along with his uncle on an exciting trip?

You may be wondering where I got the information that Joseph of Arimathea was Jesus' uncle. There are some very interesting documents from early church history, which, while not inspired Scripture, still tell as much of an authentic story as historical accounts concerning George Washington. One is called the Gospel of Nicodemus, which is believed to have been written by the same Pharisee who came to Jesus by night, in the John 3 account.

Joseph shows up during the trial of Jesus and, while Bible scholars would have us believe that Christ stood helpless before His accusers, early historical records, both Jewish and Roman, indicate that a brilliant defense was put up for Jesus by some very able lawyers and against heavy odds. In fact, there is some evidence available, which indicates that this defense cost the lives of several men. Early Jewish records of this trial indicate that, when the final vote of the Sanhedrin was taken, forty of the seventy legislative members voted for acquittal. It was then that Caiaphas the High Priest, seeing a great political danger to himself, did an unprecedented thing and took charge of the trial personally. Then to thwart the votes of the legislators who voted for acquittal, he played his "trump card" and sent Jesus to be tried by the Roman Governor, Pontius Pilate.

There is very little doubt, based on these early accounts, that, before Christ had been brought to trial, there had been a heated debate in the Sanhedrin, over what to do about this exciting young teacher from Galilee. He had fired the imagination of the common people. There were two political parties in the Sanhedrin at this time--the older, ultraconservatives, led by Ananias and Caiaphas, known as the Pharisees, and the new Liberal Party, called the Sadducees. This new party had been in a power struggle to unseat Caiaphas. They had little chance of winning, since the wealthy ruling power in Jewry, with the exception of one man, was in the hands of the Pharisees. However, this one man, Joseph of Arimathea, had a political influence which went beyond the boundaries of Judaism, into high Roman political circles.

Evidence reveals that Joseph was so strong the religious leaders were afraid to attack him openly. This man is mentioned in only a few places in the Gospels. The Matthew account connected him with the burial of Jesus and can be found in Matthew 27: 57. In Luke's account, he is called a "counselor," or "lawyer," so we see him as a very important figure, not only in Jewish politics, but in Roman circles. He was influential enough that, according to Bible accounts, he could get an audience with the Roman Governor.

With the skimpy Scriptural account, I doubt if one fundamentalist pastor or Bible scholar in a thousand has ever bothered to do a "background study" on this very remarkable man. This is a shame, since he was very active in the new church.

A study of contemporary history will show us that Joseph of Arimathea played an important part in the early drama of the Christian Church. He became one of the major protectors of that little band of people known as THE WAY, who later became known as "Christians." These were those who dared to stand against Roman power and say: "Jesus is King!"

Early church history indicated that Joseph became the guardian of the Virgin Mary. He also became an early apostle to Britain and set up the first Christian church on English soil, less than ten years after Christ's death. This was 500 years before the Roman Catholic Church claims to have Christianized Britain.

Joseph's wealth came from the tin industry in Cornwall, where the major portion of the world's tin was being mined at this time. Many of the early Greek and Roman classical writers refer to this tin trade between England and Phoenicia. From early records, it appears that Joseph was the Virgin Mary's uncle. He was reputed to have owned the largest private fleet in the world. There is further confirmation of this in the Latin Vulgate translation of the Bible, where in Mark 15: 43, he is referred to as "Decurio," which was a common Latin term, meaning "A Roman official in charge of metal mines." In the St. Jerome translation, Joseph's official title is given as "Nobiles Decurio."

This would indicate that he was a prominent official.

Further confirmation comes from the Jewish Talmud, which states that Joseph was the younger brother of Mary's father. This would have made him Mary's uncle, and Jesus' great-uncle. From other scholarly reports, we find that his only son, Josephus, left a mark of distinction on early British history.

A study of old records shows a very close relationship between Joseph and Christ's earthly family. Cornish tradition abounds with stories of Jesus' frequent visits to that land, when He was a young man.

We have been commonly taught that Jesus came from a poor family, but secular records indicate that, in His own right, He was a property owner who gave up His material wealth to pursue His mission of preaching the Kingdom Message.

It also appears, from these same early accounts, that one reason the High Priest Caiaphas had such control over the Roman Governor was that he was in possession of secret information, which linked Pontius Pilate to a secret, futile assassination plot against the Roman Emperor. Caiaphas was said to have used this information to "blackmail" Pilate into condemning Jesus. Do you remember the veiled threat to Pilate, found in John 19: 12, when, at the height of the trial, the High Priest shouted: "If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend"?

Secular history also indicates that a "reign of terror" was instituted by the Jewish leaders against the little band of THE WAY, immediately following Christ's execution. We know, from skimpy Bible accounts, that all but two of Christ's disciples had fled from the city. It appears as though the disciple John had taken Christ's mother away from the execution site before He died. This would seem logical, in spite of religious pictures to the contrary. Early records indicate that only Joseph of Arimathea, of all the disciples, was able to walk the streets of Jerusalem openly.

When the grave of Christ was found open, on that first Easter Sunday, the stone was rolled away and the body was missing. It was quite evident that the Jewish guards had fallen asleep at their posts. If they had been Roman soldiers, they would have been instantly executed, but the Biblical account in Matthew 28: 11-15 indicates that the Jewish authorities bribed these men to lie to the Roman authorities and say that, while they were asleep, Christ's disciples had come and stolen His body. This is the story told to Jews worldwide today.

Jewish records, for this time, show that Joseph of Arimathea was called before the Sanhedrin and accused of stealing the body of Jesus. In the steamy session which followed, Joseph refused to talk, secure in the knowledge that the Jewish authorities were afraid to touch him.

You may wonder why I have gone into such detail concerning this remarkable man. It is because he is further proof that our Israel people were in the British Isles, according to the prediction of the prophets, and that they had already begun to fulfill their mission of being God's witnesses to all the world. Look at Isaiah 43: 21: "This people [Israel] have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise." Isaiah 24: 15: "Wherefore glorify ye the Lord in the fires, even the name of the Lord God of Israel IN THE ISLES OF THE SEA." (Emphasis added.) Isaiah 42: 4: "And the isles shall wait for his [God's] law." Verse 10: "Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof." Isaiah 51: 5: "The isles shall wait upon me [God], and on mine arm shall they trust." Isaiah 66: 19: "And I [God] will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations...to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles [nations]."

Yes, my White Christian friends, your Israelite ancestors did this and their witness is inscribed in the ancient historical records, which your own pastors refuse to accept.

When the persecution of the early church became violent, it disappeared from Jerusalem and showed up in many faraway places, including Britain. As the Christian Church began its task of evangelizing the world, the Apostle Paul followed the coastline route of earlier Israelites and planted new churches among the Israel colonies on the northern shores of the Mediterranean Sea. This can be proven from the salutations given in some of his Epistles. The Epistle to the Hebrews was not written to Jews, but to Israelites, as was the Epistle of James. Notice his salutation in James 1: 1, "to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting." Notice I Peter 1: 1: "to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia." (The word "strangers," as used here, comes from the Greek word "parepidimos," and means "resident alien." The Israelites were aliens in these lands.)

The New Testament clearly hints that Spain was within the boundaries of Paul's missionary vision. In his letter to the church at Rome, he indicates that, while he has not yet been to Rome, he had already visited Spain. In Romans 15: 24 it states: "Whosoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you." In verse 28, Paul explains how it was necessary for him to first visit Jerusalem, then says: "When therefore I have performed this...I will come by you into Spain."

If Paul went to Spain, what makes you think he did not go on to Britain? And if Paul was in Britain, as early records seem to indicate, then why do fundamental pastors and scholars get so upset at records that Joseph of Arimathea founded a Christian Church there? After all, these records were kept by a meticulous Roman government.

If this record was about America's Revolution, the same men would accept it. If it was about Nebuchadnezzar in 607 B.C. or Egypt in 1700 B.C., they would accept it. It is only those records which upset their pet theories which they refuse to accept. Why? Because they have been led astray by Jewish propaganda (fables).

One of the outstanding facts in world history has been the basic unity of the Anglo-Saxon people. We people in the United States did not create this unity, for, in fact, under Jewish pressure, we have tried to destroy it for 150 years. We fought two wars with our mother country, both instigated under pressure from International Jewry. We have fought two great wars with a great Christian White country named Germany, this in spite of the fact that 25% of our American people were of German heritage. We have allowed the Jewish-controlled media to spout "anti-German-anti-English" propaganda, which is designed to drive us further apart. The same thing is now going on with our neighbor Canada. In spite of every effort to widen the gap between our peoples, Anglo-Saxon unity is still a force to be reckoned with. Why is this? Because Bible prophecy foretells it!

This unity did not come into being because we speak a universal language--we do not! It did not come because we are alike in politics, for we are not! We think the same thoughts, because they are our heart language and we have been conditioned by our Israel-Christian heritage to think them. (Never say Judeo-Christian, since this is completely false.)

Nowhere else in all the world do you find the love of freedom, which is found in our people. This love for justice and freedom stems from our Israelite belief in the Lord God Jehovah, the God of our father Jacob.

We look at the historical records of England and the United States and there is much for which we should be ashamed. We can see where the Jewish influence has infused a greedy drive for materialism into our people and our government. Yet our forefathers in the Old Testament committed these same sins and the "lash of God" descended on their backs, just as it is falling on our White countries today.

Wherever our people live, the enemies of God (not His Chosen People, but His enemies) have attempted to lure us away from the God of our fathers and from living according to His laws. We have broken the Covenant our fathers made with our God and, today, we are paying the price for it.

Take some time and read the words of the Mayflower Compact, signed on November 21, 1620, in the stuffy cabin of a little ship called the Mayflower, as she lay anchored off what is now Provincetown, Massachusetts: "In the name of God, Amen! We whose names are underwritten, having undertaken for the glory of God and the advancement of the Christian faith, a voyage to plant this first colony."

When the first colonies had grown to four, they formed a Federation and the Articles of Confederation began with these words: "Whereas we all came to these parts of America with one and the same end: namely the advancement of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ and to enjoy the liberties of the Gospel in purity."

Don't ever try and tell me that America was not founded as a Christian nation. Our early records are replete with examples like this. We say in our Pledge of Allegiance: "One nation, under God!" Our money bears the motto: "In God we trust!" Our country was founded as a Christian nation. Our forefathers had no idea of founding a "pluralistic society," as Jerry Falwell claims. We were set up to be a Christian country and, if people of other faiths want to live in peace with us, let them realize they are here only by our Christian sufferance and let them desist in their efforts to destroy us. It is no wonder our founding fathers could declare themselves to be "the seed of Abraham, God's servant, and the children of Jacob, His chosen." Those were their words!

Those of us, who have studied the Bible with an open mind, know that the purposes of God will be fulfilled in the Israel nations, in spite of all the efforts by "brainwashed" or "evil" men to thwart them. It will come in God's own good time, regardless of what the skeptics say to the contrary. It is our task to "prepare the way for His Kingdom," as He has commanded us.

The great poet laureate of England, Rudyard Kipling, knew this. He was conscious of our Israel identity, when he wrote his greatest poem, "Requiem," for the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria. It was not a popular poem, because it warned Englishmen of something they didn't want to accept. It is a poem America better listen to:

"Far flung our navies melt away;
On dunes and headland sinks the fire:
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday,
Is one with Ninevah and Tyre;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget!

"For heathen heart which puts its trust,
In reeking tube and iron shard.
All valiant dust, which builds on dust,

And guarding, calls not Thee to guard.
For frantic boast, and foolish word,
Have mercy on Thy people, Lord!"

Let no one believe that I have written this message for the glorification of my people. On the contrary, I hope that its truth will bring our Israel people to their knees before our God. These words were written to glorify our God and that His purposes may be fulfilled through us. The highest justification of man's existence comes when he becomes a vehicle through which God's purposes can be accomplished. There should be no other goal in our mind!

Over a hundred years ago, a heathen Jewish philosopher in German, named Ludwig Feurbach, wrote: "Man will finally be truly free; when he realizes there is no God of man, but man himself." This heathen idea became so deeply rooted in the diseased brain of a young Jewish radical named Karl Mordecai Marx, that it became the foundation on which modern Communism exists.

This same idea has been promoted by Jewish sources in America, just as they have been in the forefront of promoting Secular Humanism (the worship of man, rather than God). It has invaded our government, our schools, and many of our churches, with its insidious poison. It has slowly eroded the moral fiber of our nation. It is in direct conflict with everything our God stands for!

Today we find the White nations of Christendom standing at the moment of decision. We are confronted by the same question Joshua once asked of our forefathers: "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." May our answer be as his: "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24: 15). This is the only thing which will save us. Will we return to the keeping of God's laws and be happy and survive? Or will we have to have our noses rubbed in the dirt, and possibly languish under Jewish-

Communist persecution, before we will acknowledge the God of our father, and His right to rule over our lives?

The supreme proof that we are God's people can be seen in the fact that we are still within the scope of His discipline as a nation. This correction will be carried out until He has "purged the rebels from among us" (Ezekiel 20: 37-38). Then, and only then, can His Son, Jesus, the MESSIAH CHRIST rule supreme as KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS! MARANATHA!

This correction may fall on you too my friend, even if you are an Israelite by birth. To enjoy the whole package of God's love, you must also become His sons and daughters through the blood of His Son, which was shed for you (see John 1: 12). The "high calling" of God is not just to accept Christ and build a Christlike life. It is to know the truth and be willing to publish it to all men!

What is to be done? First, we must awaken to the realization of who we are. Then we must tear the protective mask from the enemy's face. But the blindfold must be taken from our own eyes before we can do this. We must be willing to name the danger by its proper name and then prepare, with great vigilance, to meet the enemy's offensive. We must offer a steady resistance and mount a triumphant counterattack. This will come, only as White Christians know who they are: "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith" (I John 5: 4).

For those of you, who read this message and are not of Israel's race, there is good news for you too. Our God has said: "Whosoever will may come!" Why not accept Him and get in on the "winning side today?"
